Girls win SYL exhibition game

The Sandy Youth League season is over, but it was highlighted by an exhibition game between the girls Number One team and the boys "C" team.

The girls won the game, which reportedly was an exciting one.

A number of people deserve credit for the success of the "all volunteer" league. They include "A" division coaches John Donovan, Don James, Walt Scott, Tom Novotny, Gerald Hale, Hank Emrich and George Williams.

"B" division coaches include Vince McMahon, John Britton, Mr. Weik, D. le Edwards, John Miller, Bob Owens, Mr. Mason, Bill Furlow, Doug Nealon and Mr. Walker. "C" division coaches include Jim Kunkel, Dick Buck, Lyle Schwartz, Warren Loggren, Jan Donovan, Debi Miller and Stu Fenton.

A special thanks to student volunteers Danny and Jerry Bennett, and Debbie and Tammie Kunkel. Also, thanks go out to the administrators at Sandy, Cedar Ridge, Kelso and Firwood Grade Schools for the use of facilities for practices and games.

Dan Le Brun and Wayne Buckler, who did an "excellent" job of refereeing, were credited by the SYL.

As was Bill Knight-Weiler of the city Recreation Department, for providing equipment and helping to fill the void of a lack of a school program.

Congratulations to the "A" division first-place teams, D, E and B.

A and C teams were first in the "B" division, and team Number One led its division throughout the season, and was undefeated until the last game.

Denise Redman, SYL awards party chairperson, requests an R.S.V.P. from all league players, coaches and parents. The exclusive use of Skate World in Gresham has been planned for the awards party, which will be Feb. 21 from 5 to 7 p.m.

Swim teams win duals

The Sandy girls and boys swim teams dunned Reynolds last week. The boys won 83-70, the girls 86-70.

The boys end the regular season with a 5-2 dual record. The girls are 6-1.

Coach Mark Smith said that he was pleased with the dual meet season, and said that the team members have an excellent attitude.

They are now gearing up for the district meet, which will be this weekend at MHCC. Although not favorites, Smith feels both teams have a shot at the district title.

Icy slopes claim ski team as victim

Ulla Pearson got her second consecutive Valley League meet win Saturday at Multnomah.

Coach Robert Karsten said, "Ulla did a great job, real aggressive. I couldn't have asked for more."

Her combined time, in the slalom and giant slalom, had her a second and a half ahead of the second-place finisher, according to Karsten.

Sue Sarich turned in a third-place finish. Karsten said that she skied aggressively, and he was pleased, but said that she can ski even better.

Overall, he was disappointed. Only two girls finished on the "extremely hard" snow.

Three must finish for a team score. Karsten said that he hopes they learned how important it is to get up and finish even if one does fall.

Ever since Karsten has been ski coach (this is his third season), senior Bob Spradling has been a dependable skier, always finishing.

That paid off Saturday. He had a second-place finish on the slick course.

"He came through when we needed him," Karsten said.

Erik Marter, who finished 13th, Peter Valian, 14th, and Chris Wall, 19th, were also credited with doing well, having held on through the difficult course.

The boys finished fourth overall. The lack of team points hurt the girls, who won their two Valley League meets.

Saturday they lost the league lead to Lakeridge. Karsten said that he was pleased with junior varsity skiers Peter Kallen and Jeff Day.

Team standings, boys: Lakeridge, 2:85.8; Lake Oswego, 2:74.4; Lincoln, 2:84.0; Sandy, 3:03.4; Wilson, 3:57.0; Oregon Episcopal School, 3:83.7.

Team standings, girls: Lakeridge, 3:04.8; Lincoln, 3:32.9.

Individual boys: Robert Spradling, 2nd, 89.3; Eric Marter, 13th, 99.7; Peter Valian, 14th, 100.1; Mike Wall, 19th, 177.9.

Individual girls: Ulla Pearson, 1st, 90.2; Sue Sarich, 3rd, 90.4.

Schoppert's Loggers stay on top

Trying to play catch-up all night, "A" division's Pleasant Home Mobil came up short, in points and players, in losing to Schoppert's Loggers, 74-67.

The Sandy Recreation basketball game was marred by three technicals, but Pleasant Home Mobil's main blow occurred when both Matt Jensen and Dave Kendall fouled out, leaving the team with only four players on the court. Dan Turin led the undefeated Loggers with 18 points before fouling out in the fourth quarter.

Flavor-Pac, spurred on by Tim's 38 points, ran past Veley RestorationCountry Store, 93-74. Walt Dickinson scored 26 for Veley Restoration.

In a highly defensive game, Castile Construction got its record to 5-5, beating Flavor-Pac 111-93. Jeff Hietrick scored 38 magic points for Castile Construction while Dave Kidder popped in 27 for Flavor-PAC.

"A" division standings: Schoppert's Loggers 8-0, Pleasant Home Mobil 7-1, Castile Construction 5-5, Flavor-Pac 2-5, Veley RestorationCountry Store 2-6.

Jim Brown's 23 points were not enough as the Sandy Stingers won its second "B" division game by holding off ADP, 57-45. Mike Picco led the Stingers with 19 points.

Mt. Hood Carpet Care won its third straight game, running by Obrist and Cunningham, 55-26. Mt. Hood's Dave Turin scored 17 points.

Don Carpenter got his record to 9-0 with an easy win over STC. Jeff Konell's 15 and Larry Darlan's 13 points led the way for Carpenter Excavating. ADP won its second game of the season after a hard-fought match with Obrist and Cunningham, 61-51. Jim Brown of ADP scored at will, hitting 25 points while Obrist and Cunningham's center, Mike Strickler, also scored 25.

"B" division standings: Don Carpenter Excavating 9-0, State Farm Insurance 7-1, Sandy Stingers 2-1, S.T.C. 5-5, Mt. Hood Carpet Care 4-5, A.D.P. 2-9, Obrist and Cunningham 1-6.

"C" division's Ron's No Place continued to keep a steady hold on second place by downing P & C Construction 42-33. Joe Kern led the No Placers with 13 points, while D. Boring hit 10 for P & C Construction.

First-place leader Williams Thriftway beat Dr. Tim Ward's team, though the game ended in the third quarter due to three technicals being called. In a low scoring game, the Sandy Adventists nipped T-Talk Presbyterians 17-16. Doug Knoble was high-point man for the Adventists with five points.
