Countywide appreciation night planned by group

A countywide Volunteer Appreciation Night is being planned by Clackamas County's Citizen Involvement Advisory Committee (CIAC) to give recognition to the 300-plus citizens who serve on various boards, commissions and committees.

CIAC Chairman Herb Steiner of Beavercreek has announced appointment of a committee to organize the Appreciation Night, which is scheduled for March 30 at the Department of Environmental Services offices in Oregon City. Committee members are Shirley Lyons (Mulino), Diane Quick (Happy Valley), Ardis Stevenson, Environmental Services assistant director, and Max Talbot, county planner.

"The county has more than 40 volunteer boards, with more than 300 people giving their time to help the county. The recognition night is for them, the county commissioners and the departments that these citizens work with,"

Steiner said. CIAC will finalize plans for the March event at their 7:30 p.m. Feb. 23 meeting which will be held at the Environmental Services Building. Other items on that meeting agenda include procedures for recommending citizens to serve on the Policy Advisory Board for Community Development Block Grant Funds and discussion of the senior citizens levy that is before the voters on March 30.
