Child development is goal

Focus on Children, a Strawberry Short course offered Feb. 27 at Mt. Hood Community College, is a four-hour mini-conference designed for parents, child care providers, administrators and teachers who come in regular contact with young children.

From 8:15 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., participants will have the opportunity to select two workshops from 10 offered in two sessions, in the Early Childhood Building Room DC 14.

The sessions will focus on creating a positive environment for encouraging the growth and development of children.

This is the third year Focus on Children has been offered in the Strawberry Short Course day, said Bob Dematteis, MHCC instructor of early childhood education.

"The first year we had 60 people, and last year we had 120. We expect the workshops to be crowded, but very worthwhile."

Helping the Grieving Child, Surviving With Infants and Toddlers, Books For the Modern Child, and Discipline for Home and School are some of the workshops which will be offered. Session I will be from 9-10:30 a.m., followed by a coffee break and book sale sponsored by Oregon Association for Education of Young Children.

Session II will be from 11 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.
