Anti-nuke film screening tomorrow

The Thursday afternoon Great Decisions study group is sponsoring a presentation of the film, "War Without Winners," at the Sandy Community Center, 38348 Pioneer

Bldv., next Thursday, at 1:30 p.m.

The Great Decisions study group is part of a national non-partisan organization devoted to helping people study pressing issues of the day and offering pro and con information on those issues.

The film, "War Without Winners," has been produced by the Center for Defense Information. Its primary theme is that there are no winners in a nuclear war.

The film provides information about nuclear bombs and their missile delivery systems. Such terms as kiloton and megaton are explained.

All persons interested in the problems of nuclear warfare are invited to attend. The 39-minute film will be followed by a discussion moderated by a member of the Great Decisions class.

Easter egg hunters to scour park

The Sandy Kiwanis Club will sponsor an Easter Egg Hunt next Saturday, April 10, at 10:30 a.m. in Meinig Memorial Park, behind Sandy City Hall.

Project chairman Randy Oliver anticipates a bigger and better event than in previous years.

The hunt will be divided into four age groups, up to 2 years, 2-4, 5-7, and 8-10.

The club credits the help of Sandy junior high and high school students who hard-boil and color the 100 dozen eggs and help hide the eggs and candy.

Prize eggs will also be found with the prizes donated by the Sandy Area Chamber of Commerce and local businesses.

Kiwanis asks that the youngsters bring their own baskets or sacks for collecting the eggs.

Rain or shine, the club promises ample eggs for everyone.

Cedar Ridge choir takes top honors

Cedar Ridge seventh and eighth grade choir members traveled to Howard Horner Performing Arts Center in the David Douglas School District recently to perform in the Oregon Music Educators Association Junior Division Choral Festival.

After its performance, the Sandy group was awarded a superior mark.

Each group performed 10 minutes of music for two adjudicators who graded them in eight different categories, including tone, intonation, musical effect, balance and artistry. Marks were given on a I to V scale, I being the superior mark.

After the performance, Tom Iverson, choral director at Centennial High School in Gresham, worked with the Sandy group and offered comments and suggestions.

Sandy schools plan parent conferences

The Sandy Elementary District schools will hold their end of the third quarter parent-teacher conferences next Thursday and Friday, April 8 and 9.

The Thursday conferences will begin at 1 p.m. and extend into the evening hours to accommodate working parents who are unable to meet during regular school hours. Friday's conferences will be held from 8 a.m. to noon.
