

Women to meet tonight

The Clackamas County Republican Women's Club will hold its regular meeting April 15 at the Borning Fire Hall on Highway 212, with a brief business meeting for members at 7:15 p.m.

The public is invited to hear two candidates for office at 8. D.L. Boetje, candidate for county commissioner, and Mark Pihl, candidate for state House District 23.

Boetje lives in Oak Grove, has been self employed for 35 years in the automotive and industrial chemicals industry.

He is a member of the Clackamas County development policy advisory board.

Mark Pihl, 25, is a native Oregonian who has lived in Canby since 1969. He has been an instructor of foreign languages at Portland State University, and recently returned from Washington, D.C., where he represented Small Business Advocates Inc. as director of finance for education and research.

Youth programs is topic

Summer programs for youth in the Hoodland area will be the focus of discussion at a meeting Monday at 7:30 p.m. in the Welches Grade School cafeteria.

The purpose of the gathering is to discuss ways to coordinate, publicize and establish summer activities for young people in the Mt. Hood area, according to Bob Dorman, who will preside.

Community people who have a special interest in youth or who wish to sponsor or promote a youth activity this summer are invited to attend.

The meeting is being sponsored by the Men's Breakfast Fellowship of Hoodland Lutheran Church.

Lions Club to host Shiprack

Bob Shiprack, democratic candidate for state representative for the newly-formed District 23, will be at a community "get together" April 16 from 5 to 9 p.m. at the Lions Club in Welches.

The public is invited to attend and take advantage of this opportunity to meet and discuss concerns with Shiprack and other candidates for county, state and federal offices.

For more information, call 631-3817, or write P.O. Box 125, Beaver Creek, 97004.

Open house for Edwards

An invitation has been extended to friends of Mamie Edwards to attend an open house honoring her on her 75th birthday.

It will be held at the Odd Fellows Hall on Pioneer Boulevard on April 17 from 2 to 8 p.m.

It will be hosted by her children, Gloria and Bud Dees, Eugene, Rosella and Iva Lundsford, Turner, Ore., Arlene Scheehan, Sparks, Nev., and Angie and Paul Seematted, Kanoeha, Hawaii.

Dairy group plans fair

The Northwest Oregon Dairy Goat Association will hold its annual public information days at OMSI on April 17 and 18.

Each dairy goat breed will be represented, with milking demonstrations throughout the show.

The Clackamas County 4-H Youth will have a booth, and will give talks on care of the dairy goat.

For more information, contact Peggy Fetters, 663-5638, after 3 p.m.
