Six winners selected in Welches poster contest

by MICHAEL P. JONES
Post Correspondent

Six students were recently selected as winners of a playground safety contest, held among the first, second, third and fourth graders at Welches Grade School.

The 146 posters submitted ranged in theme from playground safety to use of playground equipment. Posters were displayed on the walls of the school's new multipurpose room.

The entries were divided into two categories, first and second grades, and third and fourth grades.

Three winners were then selected from each of the categories, but were not given any ranking.

Judges for the contest were school Ken Blackburn, superintendent, Verla Rogers, budget committee member, and Carol Smale, school librarian.

Blackburn said that they selected the winners based on factors such as originality, color and appeal.

The six contest winners were treated to an all-you-can-eat, no-time-limit, lunch at Mt. Hood Dairy Queen, paid for by Blackburn.

Blackburn said that the winners could order anything they wanted as long as they ate everything they ordered. He said they "pigged out" on such things as banana splits, hotdogs, french fries, milkshakes, sundaes, hamburgers and peanut butter parfaits.

Category one winners included Anisha Hillison of Lori Martin's second grade class; first grader Dane Vogle of Lisa Simmons' class; and Ann Meeker of Sally Greer's second grade class.

Category two winners included third grader Jesse Culver of Diane Pettijohn's class; Kimberly Nelson or Karen Corsini's fourth grade class and fourth grader Robert Mayea of Eileen Stanley's class.

Rich will now serve at Scott Air Force Base, Ill.

He is a 1974 graduate of Sam Barlow High School.
