Property tax meeting set for Friday

THURSDAY, APRIL 29
A senior citizens lunch, sponsored by Loaves and Fishes, will be served at 11:30 a.m. at the Welches School Library.

A special class in "Raised Bed Gardening" will be presented this evening at 7 p.m. at Welches School. Learn the secrets of growing a mountain garden using the raised bed method that group leader Marilyn Leslie has used in her own successful garden. Call Reva Cox at 622-3397 to register for this one-time only class.

Welches Community School will also present the following classes this evening: "Recreational Basketball," 7 to 9 p.m. in the Welches School gym; "Wrestling for Kids," 7:30 to 9 p.m. in Welches School Room 15; and "Basic Plumbing," 7 to 9 p.m. in Welches School Room 20.

FRIDAY, APRIL 30
At 7 p.m. in the Women's Club Building on Salmon River Road John Thompson will lead a discussion on property tax assessments in Clackamas County.

SATURDAY, MAY 1
Mic Eby and Richard Curtis of the Hoodland Fire Department will be teaching basic first aid and CPR techniques today from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the Hoodland Fire Station.

MONDAY, MAY 3
A senior citizens lunch, sponsored by Loaves and Fishes, will be served at 11:30 a.m. in the Welches School library. "Babysitting—a guide for young sitters," a special class for Welches students sponsored by Welches Community School, will be held today at 3:30 p.m. Tips on safety, care and play for young children and infants will be included. A certificate will be given to those students who attend. Meet leader Maria Krager-Hone at the Welches Community School room for this class. An "Aerobic Exercise" class sponsored by the Welches Community School will be held at 6 p.m. in Welches School.

The Hoodland Women's Club will hold their monthly meeting this evening at 8 in the club building on Salmon River Road. The Mt. Hood Pre-school Co-op parents will be hosts for this month's meeting and will present a slide show depicting the various activities of preschool children. Election of club officers for next year is also on the agenda. Any woman interested in the development and welfare of the Hoodland area, and at least 18 years of age, is eligible for membership in the Hoodland Women's Club. Guests are welcome.

TUESDAY, MAY 4
There will be a Hoodland Chamber of Commerce board meeting at 11:30 a.m. at the Red Lion Inn.

"Kids Cooking—Mother's Day Dinner," a special Welches Community School class for children, will be held tonight beginning at 6. Group leader Jan Lake will teach participants a menu they can cook for mom at home on her special day. Samples will be available for tasting.

It's mushroom time again on the mountain. Come to community school class from 7 to 9 p.m. to see a slide show and learn to identify the different varieties of edible, wild spring mushrooms found locally. Terry Pearson, the group leader, will give directions to areas where spring mushrooms may be found. Meet at Welches School room 20.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 5
An early morning hike will be led this morning by Welches Community School leader Lou Tipton. Bring your babies in backpacks, a lunch with beverage, and meet at the parking lot of the Women's Club at 9:30 a.m. to car-pool.

The PTA of Welches School will hold its last meeting for this school term tonight at 7:30 in the old school library. Vice Principal Gary Dietrich of Welches Grade School will present, "How Welches students scholastic test scores compare with those of students in other counties and states." Also on the meeting agenda will be election of PTA officers for the upcoming school year. Refreshments will be served.
