Julrene Thornberg, left, and sister-in-law Gwen Thornberg next week open a new children's clothing store in Sandy's Frontier Building next to Ward's. Hansei & Gretel's will stock homemade and used clothing for newborns to size 12. They'll also handle homemade items such as dolls and quilts.

CCB promotion told

Ed Storey was recently named vice president of Clackamas County Bank and will continue his assignments in branch coordination.

Storey joined Clackamas County Bank as an operations officer of the Sandy office in September 1978. He has 15 years statewide banking experience in Oregon.

Storey serves as treasurer of the Sandy Chamber of Commerce. He is a graduate of the Northwest Intermediate Banking School and has completed several courses sponsored by the American Institute of Banking.

John J. Leszar recently joined Clackamas County Bank as loan officer of the Sandy office. He comes to Clackamas County Bank with 18 years experience in lending and operations within the banking industry.

Leszar and his family presently live in Portland and hope to move into the Sandy area in the future.

He attended Portland State College and has participated in classes offered by the American Institute of Banking.

Senior Center News:

Chip plant tour on tap for seniors

A tour of the Frito-Lay factory in Vancouver, Wash., is on tap today for members of the Sandy Senior Center.

People with reservations are reminded that departure is 11:45 a.m. and there will be no lunch stop en route to the factory. All participants must wear closed-toe shoes and no jewelry while on the tour.

Some young dancers from the Geyer School of Dance will present a 45-minute show following the Loaves and Fishes meal this Monday, May 3. Pinochle and cribbage playing will be postponed until 1:30 p.m. that day.

The senior center will sponsor a number of excursions during May. Trip sign-up sheets will be available in the office, beginning Monday. Reservations may be made by telephone, mail or in person.

Spaces on the vans will be on a first-come, first-served basis. Payment for transportation and any admissions charges must be received in the office no later than two working days before departure or reservations will be cancelled.

There are several items available to seniors with debilitating illnesses through the senior center's loan closet program. Aids include a motorized wheel chair, walker, one pair of crutches and a hospital bed. For more information, call the center, 668-5569.
