Top orators named in Optimist test

Sandy High School freshmen Sarah E. Krick and Steve Nelson recently won their division of the Optimist International Oratorical Contest, sponsored by the Optimist Club of Sandy.

Both advanced to zone competition where Nelson again finished first. He will now vie at a district competition for a $700 scholarship.

Both local winners delivered outstanding speeches on the subject "You and I and Tomorrow."

Second place was awarded to Christina Muff and Jack Harris; third-place winners were LaRonda Sayers and Steve Grable.

This marked the second year the Sandy Optimist Club sponsored the oratorical contest in Sandy. Some $60,000 in scholarship prize money is awarded.

Local 4 Hers soap up for free car wash

Local 4-H Club members will take part in a statewide 4-H Car Wash-a-thon this Saturday, May 1, at the Sandy Fire Hall from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Members will be asking for pledges from their neighbors and friends, based on the number of cars washed during the project. Although the car washes will be free of charge, a donation box will be at the car wash site to help toward campships, college scholarships and summer week scholarships for local 4-Hers.

The 4-H motto is "To Make the Best Better." Club leaders are asking community members to give local club members the opportunity to do just that.

For more information, pledges or donations, call E. Ten Eyck, 668-7326, or A. Beissmann, 668-7632.

New slate of speakers set

Skoko no-show at chamber

Clackamas County Commissioner Stan Skoko surprised everyone in the Sandy Chamber of Commerce Tuesday when he failed to appear as scheduled speaker.

Program chairman Darrell Dempster said he received a call from Democratic candidate Skoko the previous Tuesday. The commissioner apologized at that time for not making it to the Sandy luncheon to talk.

Then Dempster assured him that this was Skoko's scheduled time to talk, and not to worry. The governor spoke at the chamber last week.

"Then I sent him a letter to confirm when he was supposed to speak here," Dempster said, "and that's the last I heard from him." The Sandy Chamber hopes for better luck with upcoming scheduled speakers for their noon luncheons at the Tollgate Inn.

State Sen. Walt Brown, D-Dist. 13, will address the Sandy Chamber this Tuesday, May 4.

Sandy High School Superintendent Jack Peters will speak the following Tuesday, May 11.

Ed O'Meara, Oregon Journal associate editor, will be the guest speaker at the May 18 chamber meeting.

Archie Woodard, Sandy owner of Archie's

Waterbeds and Furniture, will speak at the noon meeting on May 25.

The Sandy Senior Center will host the Sandy Area Chamber of Commerce noon luncheon June 8.
