

Senior Center News:

Senior Center's spring bazaar Friday

The Sandy Senior center will sponsor its annual Spring Bazaar tomorrow, May 7 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

A variety of items will be sold including used furniture, antiques, jewelry, baked goods and handicrafts. The center's kitchen will feature selections such as homemade pasties (freshly baked Cornish meat pies) soup, sandwiches, crab cocktails, individual pizzas, fruit crisp and ice cream sundaes.

The Sandy Garden Club will also sponsor a flower show and plant show on the Community Center lawn.

A film, "Eruption of Mt. St. Helens," will be shown this Monday, May 10 at 1 p.m. The movie includes live footage of the event and focuses on stories of several individuals who were affected by the disaster.

Gale Orford, director of Tamarack Senior Adult

Camp, will be the center's guest Friday, May 14. Orford will give a slide presentation on activities featured at each of the camp's five-day sessions. Activities include canoeing, hiking, fishing, crafts, cards, nature walks, dancing, volleyball and horseback riding. Persons who wish to register for the camp will have the opportunity to do so following the program.

Several apartments in the Sandy area are currently available for occupancy by low-income seniors. For more information, contact the center, 668-5569.

Artists donate time at Welches School

Artists representing the Wy'East Artisans Guild are donating their time and expertise at Welches Grade School to stimulate interest in the arts.

Vice Principal Gary Dieterich said guild members are participating in the after-school art program, as well as assisting in the seventh and eighth grade elective art classes.

Dieterich said that Eunice Packers and Joan Ragau instructed a reed basket-making class after school the week of April 26 through 30.

On May 3 through 13 other guild members will teach classes in the fiber arts, which includes spinning and weaving.

The guild will be featuring art work made by students in June.

Dance set for May 7

The Suburban East Parents Without Partners organization is sponsoring a dance from 8 p.m. till 1 a.m. Friday at Miller Hall at the Western Forestry Center.

The band is counterclockwise. Admission is $4.50. The dance is open to the public.

The Suburban East Parents Without Partners club meets the second and fourth Tuesday of every month at MHCC, room 2760. Orientation is at 7 p.m. with the regular meeting at 8.

Five of about 60 members of the non-profit family educational support group are from the Sandy area.

Bedding fair set at Boring

An "Old Fashioned Comforter and Bedding" Fair will be held May 8 from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. at the Boring United Methodist Church.

To get to the church turn off Highway 212 on Richey Road, and go to the intersection of Church and Richey.

Flower show set May 12

The Columbia Garden Club of the Corbett-Springdale area, of Multnomah District 14, of the Oregon State Federation of Garden Clubs Inc., will be staging a flower show May 12.

It will be staged in the recreation room of the Corbett Christian Church, which is located on Crown Point Highway (old U.S. 30 Scenic) in Corbett.

The show, which is open to the public, will be held from 1 to 6 p.m.

Mrs. A.H. Mason is general chairman. Mrs. E.C. Wilson is co-chairman and Mrs. Homer Wright is staging chairman.

No admission will be charged.

Flea Market is May 22

The Sandy Grange will hold a flea market later this month. Baked goods, firewood, hand-made items and plants, along with door prizes, will be featured.

The flea market will be held May 22, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the grange hall on Kelso Road, just off Orient Drive.

Cost is $3.50 per table reservation.

For reservations, call 668-4952 or 668-5778.
