Ten Eyck nominated for scholarship

Pattie Ten Eyck, Sandy, is recipient of one scholarship award and Oregon's nominee for a second in the 4-H scholarship program, according to Linda Erickson, Oregon State University extension agent in Clackamas County.

A senior at Sandy Union High School, she is daughter of Victor and Ellen Ten Eyck, 49549 SE Marmot Road, Sandy.

The nine-year 4-H member is winner of a $225 O.M. Plummer scholarship, which is given annually to a 4-H member who has participated in the Pacific-International Livestock Exposition.

In addition, she's been nominated for a $1,000 scholarship given through the National 4-H Council by the Educational Foundation of Alpha Gamma Rho fraternity to a 4-H member who plans to major in agriculture.

Next fall, Ten Eyck plans to attend OSU to begin a major in agriculture with a minor in communications. She wants to help "non-farm people understand the special problems and needs of agriculture and why a strong agricultural industry is of benefit to all people."

During her years in 4-H,

Ward named top mother

Kathy Ward of Sandy has been named Pair-A-Tykes Mother of the Year for 1982-83.

The annual award was presented at a mother-daughter banquet May 4.

Ward is the mother of four children, including twins Mike and David, age 19. She also has an older son, Randy, and a younger son, Chris. Her husband is Byron.

Ward is currently serving as president of her club and as junior delegate to the Northwest Association of Mothers of Twins Club.

she has concentrated on a beef project. Her beef herd now includes nine Simmental cattle.

A member of Sandy 4-H livestock club, she has been a junior leader for five years.
