How could he? The friends and servants of the lord of the manor are aghast that he could even consider an affair of the heart with someone other than his wife in "A Flea in Her Ear," presented by Sandy High School. Left to right, Craig Thacker, James Davis, Julie Griffin, Dave Stafford, Lilian Muff and Stu Cabe. The play runs Friday and Saturday at 8 p.m. at the school.

Alcohol seminar scheduled

An informational forum on alcohol use and abuse by adolescents will be held this Wednesday evening at Sandy Union High School.

The multi-media presentation by Mark Miller, of the University of Oregon Drug Information Center, will be held in Gym A at the school at 7:30 p.m.

While the evening presentation is planned for parents' information, there will be two assemblies during the day for students at the school.

SUHS Principal John McMahan said plans are being made now for a follow-up program in the fall with cooperation from other agencies including the Clackamas County Sheriff's Department, Oregon State Police and an alcohol treatment center in Gresham.

"I miss you very much" is one good reason to call long distance.

There was a time when you waited for a special occasion to call: to announce a baby was born. Or to say "hello" at holiday times.

Today, almost any occasion will do. To catch up with the news. . . to share a special moment. . . to hear a friendly voice far away.

It means so much — and costs so little.

Turn an ordinary minute into a memorable moment. Call someone you love long distance today.

Long Distance . . . the shortest distance between two people.
