SUHS senior Steve Brader turns it on in the 400 for a second-place finish at Molalla.

Brian's take 33-3 win

Brian's Sports won its second straight game, running up a 33-3 score over the Inn Between in recreation softball. Circle D slipped by the Sandy Z's, 13-12, while Timberline Lodge blew past Paola's Pizza Barn, 27-4.

Carey Construction won its first game, 13-3 over Ron's No. Place, while Brightwood Tavern disposed of the Hoodview Royals, 9-6.

In Friday's showdown between last year's champions, Dodson's Store and always-tough Buckboard Pizza, Dodson's, playing excellent defense and aided by strong pitching, came out on top, 4-1.

Sandy Area Softball standings: Dodson's, 2-0; Brian's Sports, 2-0; Circle D, 1-1; Buckboard Pizza, 1-1; Hoodview Royals, 1-1; Carey Construction, 1-1; Brightwood Tavern, 1-1; Timberline Lodge, 1-1; Inn Between, 1-1; Ron's No. Place, 1-1; Paola's Pizza Barn, 0-2; Sandy Z's, 0-2.

Mt. Country goes 2-0

Mt. Country, an amalgamation of two "mountain" teams, proved they were the team to beat in recreation volleyball as they won two matches last week. In two successive games Mt. Country Realty did away with Dovey's Diggers, 15-8 and 15-10, and then in a long, grueling match, Mt. Country came from behind to rally over Pistol Pete's, 15-9, 14-16 and 15-11.

In a third match, Dovey's Diggers avenged an earlier defeat, winning over Pistol Pete's 12-15, 15-13 and 13-11.

Standings: Mt. Country Realty, 2-0; Dovey's Diggers, 2-2; Pistol Pete's Pizza, 2-2, and C.J.'s, 0-2.

Blue Marlins perform well

Several members of the Blue Marlin Aquatic Club performed well at a meet Saturday at Oregon City.

Mark Rolph turned in three personal records in six events. Dean Haines met several Oregon Association championship qualifying times, setting five personal records in six events.

Top finishes: Terri Hanson, 13-14, 1st in 100 free, 100 breast and 100 fly; Dean Haines, 13-14, 1st in 200 fly; Mark Rolph, 11-12, 1st in 50 free; Gaylord Miller, 9-13, 1st in 50 free, 100 breast and 200 IM.

Others participating included Nici Hanson, Heather Doring, Robyn Hayball, Adam Hayball, Stuart Lawson, Bill Wardy, Jason Smith, Robbie Rolph, Richard Montgomery, Ben King, Jason Roberts, Russel Becker, David Hayball, Barbie Hayball and Nick Phillips.

Hawks qualify for state

The Cinder Hawks qualified 12 young local runners in their season opener for the Junior Olympics state meet June 12 at Madison High School.

The grade school runners took 10 firsts, with the 12- to 13-year-old girls dashing to victories in the 1500, 800, 3000 and the 1600-meter relay.

In events for girls 9 and under, Sandy Edgren and Trish Waibel ran the third and fourth legs on a relay team that qualified. Traci Ayers placed third in the 800 to qualify.

In events for girls 10 and 11, Danielle Krebs and Nichol Galvin of Bull Run School ran legs on the winning 1600-meter relay team.

17,000 WAYS TO SAVE!

Les Schwab has purchased 17,000 of these premium tires and can now pass the savings on to you... our valued customers.

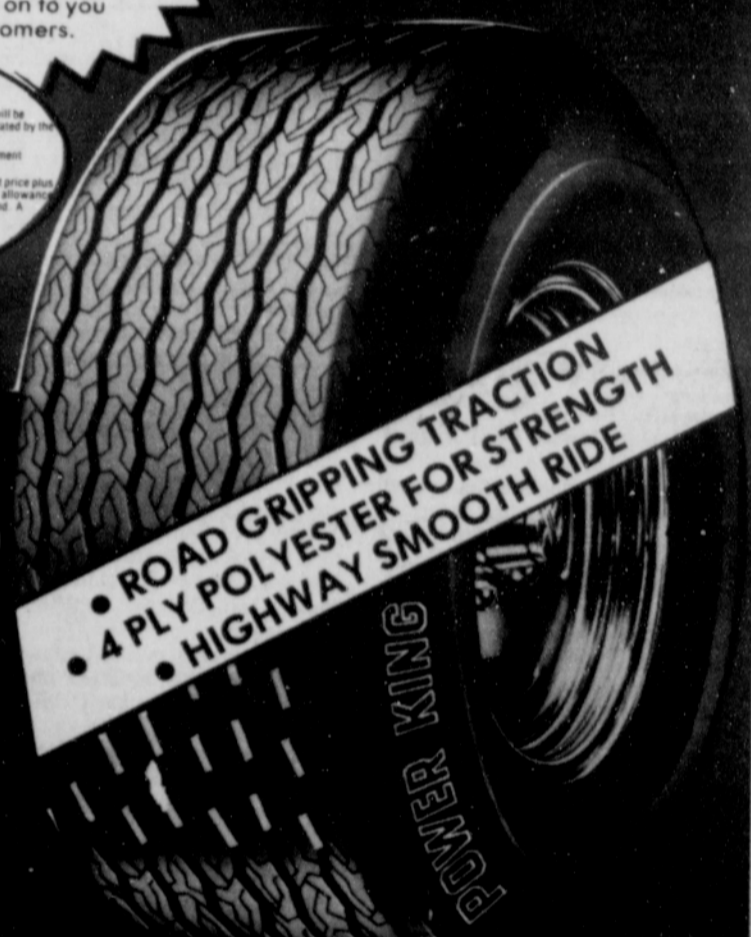

WARRANTY
Tires listed on the Les Schwab mileage warranty which wear to a tread depth of 2/32nds before their specified mileage in normal passenger car service will be adjusted to the purchaser on a pro-rata adjustment calculated by the following formula:
100% less miles of actual service - % of adjustment warranted mileage
The percent of adjustment will be multiplied by the current price plus federal excise tax to arrive at the actual amount of allowance towards the purchase of a new tire or cash refund. A complete detailed copy of this warranty is available at any Les Schwab Tire Center or by writing to: Les Schwab Tire Center, P.O. Box 667, Beaverton, OR 97004.
