

Fun with Music group raises $400

The Fun with Music group of Boring recently met for its annual donation night. This year $400 was raised for the Oral Hull Foundation for the Blind, which is double what the group gave last year.

The evening began with dinner at the Tollgate Restaurant in Sandy. Sixteen members attended.

Following the dinner the group toured the grounds at Oral Hull, including the "Enchanted Gardens." At the end of the evening $400, wrapped in brown paper, was presented to Gene Bobo, the caretaker.

While this was the second year the club contributed to Oral Hull, it marks the 10th year since Fun with Music was organized.

It was formed by a group of people in Boring, and spearheaded by Gordon Wight, club coordinator.

Fun with Music has enjoyed a 15 percent increase in membership this year, according to Wights. Most live in the vicinity, but some live as far away as California, Minnesota and Nebraska.

The name of the club describes exactly what they do. It's people getting together to have fun with music, according to Wight.

"We've got people over 70 years old that dance," he said.

In addition to frequent dance parties throughout the year, the club enters several parades. They won the first-place trophy for a float in the Gateway Funerama this year, and last year won the grand sweepstakes in the Molalla Buckaroo.

Usually 30 people participate in parade activities, which includes band members. The float resembles an old-time pavilion stage. Underneath is a 14-by-eight-foot trailer owned by Fun with Music.

Decorating the float is done economically. "Helma Wight said they decorate it with 'whatever we feel like hanging on it.' Parades usually cost the club about $50 each.

The floats always carry live bands. "We've never in the club's history danced to canned music. It's always been live," said Wight.

Floyd Welliver, chairman of the club, said they have become so popular that bands ask to play for them at parades.

About the appeal of Fun with Music, Wight said, "I think it's because we're close together."

The group's motto: "A club formed with the idea of getting together to enjoy each other's company without malice—where each member has a voice and is an asset in the club."

To join the club one must be at least 12 years of age. Dues are $1.50 every three months and activities are held at the Boring Grange Hall every third Sunday of the month from 2 to 8 p.m. Interested persons should call Wight at 663-3381 for more information.

Plan Continued from Page 1

Spies, whose constituents are still unknown at this time, sent a letter to the board of county commissioners on May 17 requesting an extension of 120 days so she and her clients can make the study.

Members of SEDA, according to Spies, are upset with the plan's "down-zoning," which proposes to re-zone land from one house per five acres to one per forty.

County officials, as of this time, have not made a decision but are scheduled to present the proposed changes to LCDC sometime in July or August.
