Meyer, Ramirez exchange vows

Corrine Elaine Meyer and Gregorio Lopez Ramirez were married in March at the Hoodview Seventh-day Adventist Church.

Pastor Ron Smith performed the ceremony.

Corrine is the daughter of Gail Warren of Shelton, Wash. Gregorio is the son of Gregorio Ramirez Sr. and Francisca Lopez of Jalisco, Mexico.

Randall Meyer, the bride's grandfather, gave the bride away. Eileen Meyer, of Shelton, sister of the bride, served as maid of honor.

Tammy Sexsmith of Centralia, Wash., and Kim Ewell of Ellensburg, Wash., served as bridesmaids.

Cruz Ramirez, Gresham, brother of the groom, was the best man.

Eric Meyer, of Shelton, brother of the bride, and Carlos Lopez, of Gresham, brother of the groom, served as ushers.

Suzanne Reed, cousin of the bride, served as flower girl. Billy Lopez, nephew of the groom, served as bible boy.

A reception, served by Kelly Seabolt, cousin of the bride, and Shirley Brown, her aunt, was held at the church.

Jennifer Reed presented the guest book.

Honored guests included Gail Warren, mother of the bride, and grandparents Randall Meyer and Harold and Agnes Brown.

As a keepsake, the bride wore a lace handkerchief.

Gregorio works at Ekstrom's Nursery. The bride is presently a student at Mount Hood Community College.

The Ramirezs went to Lincoln City on their honeymoon. They now reside in Sandy.
