

First-graders at Cottrell School gather around a new reading barn. The barn, along with a boat in the kindergaren room, was built in memory of former custodian Verne Redmon who worked at the school for 10 years. Garry Kidder built the barn and the boat as reading centers for students.

Jaycees kick off here tonight

The Sandy Jaycees will hold an organizational meeting this evening, June 3, to give an orientation for prospective new members, according to Don Weston, district director for the Oregon Jaycees.
Sandy hasn't had a Jaycee chapter for the past three years, Weston said.

The Oregon Jaycees plan to charter the new Sandy Jaycee chapter by June 15.
Jaycees are a leadership organization for young men between the ages of 18 and 36. The organization offers national programs for self development in the areas of goal setting, time management, communication skills, family life, leadership, personal financial management and speaking.

The goal of Jaycees is to apply these self development programs to needed projects in local communities. Community projects run by Jaycees can include crime prevention, assistance to the elderly, juvenile safety, CPR training, youth sports, environmental improvement, dental and eye clinics.
A third objective of Jaycees is to provide management training through coordination of chapter members in areas of individual development and community projects.

This is done by serving as an officer and receiving special officer's training from the Oregon Jaycees.
The meeting tonight will consist of a 10-minute slide presentation entitled, "Who are the Jaycees?" Also scheduled are a few personal testimonies, a question-and-answer period and discussion of how the Sandy Jaycees could contribute to the community.
Young men between the ages of 18 and 36 and their wives and friends are invited to attend the meeting at TJ's Fireside Dining in Sandy.
For more information, contact Weston, 761-1254.

Rock's evils unveiled

For the next two Sundays, June 6 and 13, at 6 p.m. Rev. Rick McGregor, youth pastor of Sandy Assembly of God Church, will share what's in rock music.
This two-part message will deal with "backward masking or subliminal messages" hidden in songs. Messages such as "Satan is Lord" and "Try marijuana" are found in songs that many young people listen to today, according to organizers.
Groups such as Kiss, Styx, Eagles, Queen, Pink Floyd, Van Halen, Ozzy Osbourne and AC/DC will be discussed. This is not a light subject, organizers said. Parents and young people are both invited to hear the message.

The message will be accompanied by a slide presentation of these groups and musical examples will be featured.
