

Senior Center News:

Seniors readying for Gorge cruise

A group from the Oral Hull Foundation will entertain today's Sandy Golden Age Club potluck meeting with a musical program at 1 p.m.

The potluck, which begins at noon, is open to all members and guests.

Following the potluck, the hiking club will leave for a short excursion in the Mount Hood National Forest. Return to the center will be at approximately 4 p.m.

Preparations are now underway for the center's participation in the Sandy Mountain Festival this weekend, July 10 and 11. The Sandy Senior Center will sell homemade pies and cookies in Meinig Park as a fund-raising project for the Loaves and Fishes program.

Anyone interested in assisting with this project is asked to attend the pie baking workshops today and tomorrow from 1:30 to 4 p.m.

The annual Columbia River Gorge scenic cruise has been planned for Friday, July 30. This year, participants will travel via Amtrak from Portland to Cascade Locks where they will board the Columbia Sightseer. Cost of the trip is $22.50 per person.

Reservations and payment must be received by the Sandy Senior Center no later than July 9.

July is the month to renew Sandy Senior Center memberships and newsletter subscriptions. Dues this year at $1 for membership and $2 for 12 issues of the Sandy Senior Scene.

Membership is not a requirement for seniors who wish to participate in activities or services of the center. However, membership fees collected by staff and volunteers are used to offset operational costs.

New Flower Garden shop proprietor Diane Tiller readies her flowers and plants at 39075 Proctor in Sandy for a grand opening celebration Friday through Sunday.

Griffin stays to fill Tucker spot

Terry Lenchitsky was sworn in at a reconvened SUHS board meeting June 30, and Pete Griffin was appointed to fill the vacancy left by the death of Paul Tucker.

An election to fill that position will be held March 29, 1983.

Griffin had served as board chairman at what he thought would be his last meeting on June 14. Len-chitsky defeated Jeffrey Miller June 29 in the election for Position 2.

In other action the board decided to place the same $2.7 million operating levy before the public again Aug. 10. The levy was voted down 1,099 to 895 on June 29.

The board also voted to accept the resignation of Ruth Kostur, an English teacher at SUHS since August of 1978. She is moving to Texas with her husband.

New flower shop blooms

Diane Tiller, who operates a garden nursery near Sandy with her husband, Patrick, has opened a new flower and plant shop with partner Zeph McNaughton at 39075 Proctor, Sandy.

The site is the former home of Lorrie's Sandy Florist and earlier Dorine's Sandy Florist across from TJ's restaurant.

Proprietor Diane Tiller said her shop will feature outdoor plant sales plus advice from OSU Extension Service experts from 1 to 5 p.m. Fridays and Saturdays during Master Gardener Clinics there.

She's also remodeled the old florist shop to include a large new walk-in cooler for cut flowers.

The new Flower Garden shop will celebrate its grand opening this Friday through Sunday with free refreshments and a door prize.

Normal business hours will be 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Tuesdays through Saturdays.

Tiller earlier worked at Lorrie's Sandy Florist. Some of the horses in the Mountain Festival parade July 8 will carry her flower arrangements.
