Cyclists pedal to aid others

"St. Jude Children's Hospital now has $900 more to continue its humanitarian work because people in Sandy and Boring care about children," chairman Anita Tinjum said, announcing final results of the May 29 Wheels for Life Bike-a-thon.

"We had a great ride and the money was raised for a great cause, but more importantly, we were able to show that St. Jude Children's Hospital is as important here as it is to the entire world," she said. "More people here now understand that St. Jude's research is providing many answers about childhood cancer and other diseases. The progress being made at St. Jude Hospital benefits children all over the world," Tinjum said. "Our ride has helped put Sandy and Boring on record as a supporter of this world-famous institution."

Tinjum expressed gratitude to merchants who contributed prizes including Buckboard Pizza, Sandy Rexall, Williams Thriftway, Sandy Sentry, Paola's Pizza, Dairy Queen, Shorty's Corner, Taco Time and Calamity Jane's.

Rock throwing nets jail stay

A Sandy man was arrested Monday by Sandy police and charged with second-degree criminal mischief after he reportedly threw rocks at a Hood Street residence.

Duane Lynn Grimm, 26, was taken to Clackamas County Jail after Shirley Grimm told police that a man had thrown the rocks at her house Sunday. Last Tuesday, Duane Grimm and Tereasa LaRelle Ross, 21, of Gresham had been cited for fourth-degree assault after an incident at Mrs. Grimm's home.

Early Monday morning a Corbett man was injured when the vehicle he was driving struck a utility pole at the intersection of Proctor Boulevard and Shelley Avenue.

Darryl Rollin Burkholder, 25, suffered head injuries after he reportedly fell asleep and struck the pole. He was cited for driving with expired tags on his license plate.

Benjamin Delbert Baker, 36, of Sandy was cited by Sandy police for theft Sunday at 2:40 a.m. after an employee at Jim's Big Apple told police that a man took two half-cases of Heidelberg and one half-case of Miller beer, valued at $17.87, from the store.

Gregory Emmett Scott, 19, of Sandy was cited for minor in possession of intoxicants by consumption and driving under the influence of intoxicants Saturday at 11:10 p.m.

Scott was involved in an accident at Smith's Chevron service station. He reportedly backed up his vehicle and struck motorcycle, driven by Frank Lesowski of Portland. A passenger on the motorcycle, Lorri Ross of Boring, was injured in the accident.

Jay Scott Canary, 24, of Boring was taken to Clackamas County Jail Saturday morning after a traffic stop at Kelso Road and Highway 26. He was charged with driving under the influence of intoxicants, driving with a revoked license and giving a false name to a police officer.

Kenneth Gregory Greene, 19, of Sandy was taken to jail last Wednesday and charged with resisting arrest and fourth-degree assault after a traffic stop at the intersection of Bluff Road and Sunset Street.
