Local dairy gets superior rating

Sixteen Clackamas County dairies qualified for the 1982 Oregon Dairy of Honor program after the annual inspection and evaluation of the area's dairy farms.

David Timm of Eagle Creek was one of 36 across the state to receive a "superior" rating for his operation.

Previous sign holders who qualified again include the Meier Dairy Farm and Arnold Moore, both of Boring.

The Dairy of Honor program is a cooperative effort sponsored jointly by the Oregon State University extension service, the Oregon Dairyman's Association and the Oregon Dairy Products Commission.

The purpose of the program is to upgrade the appearance of dairy farms.
