

Gun shop expands offerings

Earl's Gun Shack of Sandy celebrates its first anniversary with a new name, co-owner and location.

Byron Barr has joined Earl Spinks as partner of the expanding Heritage Square sports store now renamed Sports Barn.

The name reflects expansion of the gun shop into other sporting goods lines. Sports Barn also handles Poulain chain saws now.

The shop moved from Frontier Building, where it opened last August, to the ground floor of Heritage Square.

The new location, unlike the earlier walk-up quarters, is readily accessible from Pioneer Boulevard or the square's parking lot.

Twin stuffed moose heads in the new store carry name tags for new partners Byron and Earl.

They're holding a grand opening with free drawing for a shotgun, chainsaw and other sports prizes 6 p.m. Sept. 30.

Video store focuses on Hoodland

Trecia and George Dixon of Timberline Rim have opened a new video store for home movie buffs in Hoodland Park Plaza next to Sears.

Dixon's Video Store offers recorders for sale or rent plus top new movies for rent.

The couple hope to carry home video game cartridges soon, too, in addition to Magnavox and Quasar recorders, Headmaster cleaners and Fuji blank tape.

New movie titles will be introduced weekly.

The store is open 10 a.m.

to 8 p.m. Monday through Saturday and noon until 6 p.m. Sunday.

The new store operators moved to Brightwood a year ago to live in a new home built by George Dixon, a professional homebuilder.

Wife Trecia worked for years in a Gresham clothing store.

Prior to moving here, the couple resided in Vancouver, Wash.

inside the church

Dinner set at Assembly of God church

Joy Fellowship of Sandy Assembly of God will sponsor their annual Hunter's Dinner this Monday, Sept. 27, at 7 p.m.

Everyone from 12 years old and up is invited. The speaker will be Jack Kuykendall, well-known Eugene businessman and popular speaker for various men's organizations throughout the state.

Special music will be furnished by Pastor and Mrs. Rick McGregor, who minister to the youth at Sandy Assembly.

Prizes will be given to some lucky hunter and the menu for the evening will be chicken enchiladas, tater tot casserole, salad, four-layer delight, apple cider, coffee and tea.

Babysitting will be provided for children up to 11 years of age. For reservations, call the church at 668-5589.

Peepo & Anymuls, valued at $25.

Tickets—$1 each or $5 for six—are available at the Chapel of the Hills, 59151 E Highway 26. They are also available by mail order with a self-addressed envelope.

The drawing will be held Oct. 29. Proceeds will be used to purchase school equipment.

Family film to screen this Sunday

"Sand Castles," the story of Larry and Meg Morgan and their two children, will be shown at Pleasant Home Baptist Church this Sunday, Sept. 26, at 7 p.m.

The Morgans are achievers of the American dream where owning things seems far better than owning a positive, communicating relationship. They have listened to the influences of materialistic society and the result is a crumbling of their relationship.

"Sand Castles" is also the story of Cathy and Bob, their Christian neighbors. They, too, have struggles.

The movie is about the four of them together, struggling to be honest as friends and struggling to be honest to each other or lack of it affects their marriages.

"Sand Castles" is the result of Evangelical Films' efforts in dealing with the needs of families across America.

10 Immanuel Lutheran Church, 39901 Pleasant St., Sandy, will host four nights of "Open House Services."

The evening services will be open to the public and will include special music, a children's message, a question-and-answer period, a message by a guest speaker and a fellowship time following the service.

The general theme of the services is "Meet a Friend." The messages during the services will be given by the Rev. Martin Ludi of the district office of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod.

The services will be held nightly at 7 p.m. Oct. 10-13.
