Sandy man appointed to Eye Bank board

A Sandy man has been elected to the Oregon Lions Eye Bank advisory board.

Carl Berry said the real goal of the Eye Bank should be to "provide eye tissue to everyone who needs it." As an advisory board member, he will inform Lions clubs in his district about the function of the Eye Bank and its donor program.

Berry, active with the Oregon Lions, currently serves as deputy district governor of Multiple District 36 "O" and is a member of the Gresham Lions Club. He was the charter president of his Lions Club and has been active with the club's sight committee by screening applicants for Lions-funded patient care.

Berry has been employed by Courtesy Moving and Storage in Portland for 35 years, and just recently was named the firm's vice president of marketing.

Berry has lived in Sandy for 14 years. He has a wife, Gerry.

In addition to his activities with the Oregon Lions, Berry serves on the boards of the Portland Commercial Club and the annual Gresham Get-Together Days. He also serves on the ad hoc committee of the Gresham Public Works Department and is a member of the Gresham Elks Lodge.
