

Hawks win 3 divisions at Corvallis

The Oregon Cinder Hawks fielded four complete cross country teams at Corvallis this weekend, and three took first while the other was second.

The boys and girls ran coed in the 7 and under division, and won handily.

Cinder Hawks Isreal Matz, Andy Norman, Ben Matz and Travis Romey took the first four places, respectively, while Gracey Pankey, Karessa Francis and Star Bean were third, seventh and ninth in the 7 and under division.

Coach Darold Beymer was pleased that the 12-13 girls got on the winning track again, beating a "great" Corvallis team, 32-38.

Angela Benedetti, Shaune Gilchrist and Cindy Roth took second, third and fourth, respectively, while Robin Ermatinger was 10th and Corky Fones 13th.

The Hawks' 10-11 boys had a full team "for once," and took first. Larry Little led the way with a seventh. Brandon Shore was eighth, Tom Romey 12th, James Scott 13th and Jasen King, 14th.

The 10-11 girls lost for the first time this year, taking second to the Woodburn, Wash., "Flannagan Clan" Track Club.

"We had one essential runner missing and I'm sure we'll get them with Nichole Galvin back in the line-up next week," Beymer said.

Karla Harrison led the way with a "strong" third place in 12:22 over the

Carpet Cleaners are team to beat

The fall season of the Sandy Volleyball League began last week and in the B division Mt. Hood Carpet Cleaners seemed to be the team to beat as they disposed of Calamity Jane's in two games, 15-12 and 15-5.

Then, in a tougher game, they had to come from behind to defeat Carlson Chevrolet 7-15, 15-9 and 15-11.

3000-meter course. Team-mates Danielle Jordan, Shawna Patterson, Kim Yankauskas and Angel Bean finished seventh, ninth, 15th and 25th, respectively.

Marty Romey was the lone representative in the 8-9 boys division. He took fifth.

Rosey Pankey "fired up for her best run ever," Beymer said. She set a personal record on the incomplete 8-9 girls team with a 13:24 in the 3000, good for fifth place.

Audrey Krause was 8th, Halo Bean 17th and Codi Proctor 21st.

Adam Ermatinger represented the Hawks in the 14-15 boys division, taking second in 18:01 over 5000 meters.
