Lucile Wilbanks

Services for Sandy resident Lucile Wilbanks will be held Saturday, Oct. 23, at 11 a.m. in the chapel of Sandy Funeral Home.

Mrs. Wilbanks died Oct. 14 at her Sandy home. She was 67.

Born Lucile Margaret Doolittle on Jan. 15, 1915 in Glendive, Mont., the family moved to the Northwest when she was 9 years old. They lived in the Portland area and Vancouver, Wash., areas where she received her education.

She married Francis W. Wilbanks in 1940. They lived at Tottle, Wash., where they raised their five children.

They moved to Sandy in 1974 and Mrs. Wilbanks later became a member of the Sandy Senior Center. She enjoyed spending her time doing handicraft work.

Her husband preceded her in death in 1980.

She is survived by her children, William Howell, Roy Wilbanks and Gary Wilbanks, all in Washington, and Joyce Cady of Troutdale; two sisters, Ruth Wilbanks and Elizabeth, both of Boring; 13 grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren.

T. Thompson

Graveside services for former Sandy resident Thomas O. Thompson, 84, were held Oct. 13 at Forest Lawn Memorial Park in Gresham.

Mr. Thompson died Oct. 10 at the home of his son in Canby.

He was born April 29, 1898 in Alton, Mo., to the late Thomas and Elizabeth Thompson. He moved to Oregon in 1944, living in Sutherlin, McMinnville and Sandy for several years. He moved to Canby in May of this year. Mr. Thompson had worked as a machinist during World War I but most of his life was devoted to farming.

His wife, Ila, whom he married in 1924 at Alton preceded him in death in 1973.

He is survived by six sons, Oval and Jack, both of Molalla, Lloyd of Canby, Floyd of Oregon City, Max of Portland and Sherman of Cornelius; three daughters, Marilyn Hollingshead of Tulsa, Okla., Ruth Cole of Sutherlin and Joyce Johnson of Portland; 32 grandchildren, and numerous great-grandchildren.

Ruth Rambo

Services were held Monday at Carroll Funeral Home for Ruth Margaret Rambo of Eagle Creek who died Oct. 13 at Gresham Community Hospital. She was 63.

She was born July 13, 1919 in Portland and lived in Oregon all her life. She attended schools in Dover and Oak Grove and graduated from Sandy High School. She was a devoted wife and step-mother and enjoyed her country life.

Survivors include her husband, George Franklin Rambo; two step-sons, Patrick Brady Rambo and Joey Franklin Rambo, both of Portland and one step-grandson.

Burial was at Forest Lawn Memorial Park in Gresham.

Sandy Chamber of Commerce President Chuck Jones displays new "snow board" Chamber has designed to stimulate interest in first snowfall here. Community boosters are invited to pick a date they think the first measurable snow will fall at the Alpine Ambulance check point. Donated prizes include two lift tickets, a cord of wood, oil and a thermos. The Chamber has asked guessers to buy a Sandy booster button on sale in local stores, but no purchase is necessary. The snow board is at Sandy Rexall Drug through Oct. 21 and moves to Paola's Friday for one week.

'Madness' looms on Sandy's horizon

A haunted house, hayrides, costume contest and moonlight sale will entertain persons who stroll downtown in Sandy next week during "Moonlight Madness."

Sandy Area Merchants have brewed this Halloween-time fun with cooperation of Sandy FFA who will conduct the hayrides and Sandy Optimists who will operate the spook house downtown. The moonlight sale with hijinks and costumed store clerks is scheduled 7-10 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 28.

The hayrides also are planned Thursday evening with roundup point in the drugstore parking lot downtown.

The haunted house 7-11 p.m. Thursday through Saturday will be in the old house next to the Way Station Restaurant on Pioneer Boulevard. Proceeds will benefit a fund drive to reinstate swimming at Sandy High School.

Kids 4-14 years of age may compete for "SAM's bucks" certificates 6:30 p.m. Thursday Oct. 28 in a costume contest on the back porch at Decker and Scales Store adjacent to the drug store parking lot.

Board seeks study group

The Sandy Elementary District Board of Directors is seeking participants for a District Mathematics Curriculum Committee.

The committee will be involved in a year-long study of the district's math program, including adoption of instructional materials for use between 1982 and 1989, and revamping curriculum to align it with state standards.

The district board will appoint two citizens to work on the committee with district staff at its next meeting, Nov. 15.

To apply, send a letter to Board Chairman Ron Berglund, Sandy Elementary District, P.O. Box 547, Sandy 97055.
