

Hawks win with 3 full teams

The Cinder Hawks took three full teams to Longview, Wash., this weekend with all three winning.

The 7 and under girls were led by Gracie Pankey, who finished in a "strong" third place, according to Coach Darold Beymer.

Christy Hartney was fourth, Karresa Francis was fifth and Shannon Schneider was sixth.

The 7 and under boys were not even challenged. Isreal Matz, Andy Norman, Claine Caudle, Ben Matz and Travis Romey took first through fifth, respectively.

The 9 and under girls had an incomplete team. Audrey Krause ran a "strong" fourth, turning in a 11:55 over the 3000-meter course.

Teammate Ruth Romey was eighth, Rosey Pankey was 11th and Trish Waibel was 16th.

"We really missed Nichole Gatchell on that team," Beymer said. She broke both hands doing a "death drop" on the school playground, according to Beymer.

Only Ron Caudle represented the 9 and under boys. He took home a second-place ribbon.

The Hawks' 10-11 girls team was incomplete, but "the four who ran did a great job," Beymer said.

Karla Harrison had "another fine day," taking second in a "fast" 11:15 for 3000 meters.

"I was again impressed by Danniele Jordan, who took fourth place in 11:24," Beymer said. "She works hard and just keeps improving."

Shawna Patterson "is coming on fast now," and took seventh while Kim Yankauskas was 11th.

Tom Romey led an incomplete 10-11 boys team with a "best ever" fifth place. Brandon Shore was sixth, Larry Little was seventh and James Scott was eighth.

Angela Benedetti led the 12-13 girls to victory with a 14:21 over 4000 meters, with teammate Cindy Roth only one second behind. Shaune Gilchrist made it 1-2-3 with her third-place finish.

Robin Ermatinger and Corky Fones were eighth and ninth, respectively.

Adam Ermatinger ran solo in the 14-15 boys division. He took second.

"I am pleased with the way the kids are peaking for the state meet in two weeks," Beymer said.

Soccer player has lucky day

Kenny Rada, 8, had a pretty lucky Saturday recently.

He was one of about 200 Cascade Soccer Club players who sold 24 candy bars in a recent fund raiser. Out of those 200 he won a drawing that netted him a cross country bicycle, which retails at about $190.

Rada, a third grader at Kelso School, is a forward (an offensive player) for the Kelso Cavemen. On the same Saturday he won the bike he also scored a goal in the Cavemen's 4-2 win over the Warriors. His best friend, Ted Aubin, plays for the Warriors.

Rada is the son of Bob and Ginny Rada of Sandy. Rada wasn't the only one who was happy. Bob Espenel, who's directing the Cascade Soccer Club, was pleased about the $3,000 the youngsters raised.

About 400 youngsters between the ages of 5 and 14 are playing soccer in the area. League standings aren't kept. "It's just for fun," Espenel said.

He did report that several teams from different age groups participated in the recent Rose City Tournament, which was set at different sites around the Portland area.

"The kids did well," he said. "We were very competitive. Since we've grown so fast, it's good to know we're able to play with (youngsters in) established programs."
