

BPW bears outline of new strategy

Portland attorney Jean King will be the Nov. 3 dinner speaker at the meeting of the Sandy Business and Professional Women's Club.

The dinner meeting will be held in the dining room at T.J.'s Fireside Dining at 7 p.m.

King will reveal the new strategic plan for the National Federation. She represents the Oregon Federation on the Educational Grant Committee, the Political Action Committee and is a legal adviser. She recently traveled to Washington, D.C., to the national headquarters.

Guests are welcome to attend the meeting. Reservations should be made by Monday, Nov. 1, by calling 668-4985 or 668-4200.

Ruth Baumbach is chairperson for the November meeting.

Auditions set for new SCP comedy

Auditions for the Sandy Community Players' next production, "The Star-Spangled Girl" by Neil Simon, will be held Thursday, Nov. 11, at 7 p.m. at the Sandy Community Theater.

According to director Hank Emrich, there are parts for two males, ages 25-30, and one female, 20-25 years of age.

Anyone who would like to audition but is unable to attend that evening, would like to see a script or would like more information is asked to call 668-6578.

Halloween happens at Kelso School

Kelso School Community Club is hosting the "Kelso Halloween Happening" tomorrow evening, Oct. 29, from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m.

The event will feature a haunted house, dunk tank, fish pond, pie throw and food.

The haunted house will also be held Saturday evening from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. Participants are encouraged to wear a costume.

Show goes on with change of actresses

A kitchen accident has forced a change in leading roles in the Sandy Community Players' production of "The White Sheep of the Family."

Judy Sheppard, who played Alice during the play's opening this past weekend, suffered third-degree burns on her hands when oil she was heating on the stove caught fire. She will be hospitalized for about a week, according to Jan Jacqua, producer of the play.

Her husband, Peter Sheppard, will continue his role as Assistant Police Commissioner Shelton.

The play's director Doris Shiek will fill in as Alice, the shoplifting mother, for the remaining two weekends the comedy will be staged.

"Doris will take over the part," Jacqua said. "I imagine that's a real strange feeling."

"The White Sheep of the Family," a comedy about the problems an upper-crust British family of thieves encounters when the son falls in love with "one of the public," plays Friday and Saturday evenings at 8 p.m. in the Sandy Community Theater through Nov. 6.

Acting class planned

A youth drama class, taught by Rob Lawson of the Mt. Hood Community College theater group, will get together for the first time this Wednesday, Nov. 3.

The class will meet from 3:15 to 5 p.m. at the Sandy Community Center, 38348 Pioneer Blvd.

The class will include the basic techniques of drama, field trips and guest instructors. Cost of the class is $3 for city of Sandy residents and $4 for non-residents.

To register for the drama group, call the Sandy Recreation Department at 668-5569.
