Review:

'Garfield's' pur-r-rfect

by SARA FORK
For The Post

After all, cats are just little people with fur and fangs, according to Garfield.

Sandy Public Library has three new "Garfield" books by Jim Davis. If "101 Uses for a Dead Cat" offended cat lovers everywhere, Garfield is the pur-r-rfect revenge.

"Signs for Lovers"

"My brother has gone crazy. He thinks he's a chicken."

"Then why don't you commit him?"

"Because I need the eggs."

"Relationships are sometimes like that."

So begins the new book, "Star Signs for Lovers," by Liz Greene.

If you're in a relationship that sometimes hatches a lot of eggs, maybe it's time to find that shadowy side of you that seems to draw less than desirable friends and lovers.

"Star Signs for Lovers" won't tell you if your day is going to be good or bad (who knows until it happens?). Instead, it tells you why you do what you do and, maybe, why you've always longed to do it differently.

ferently.

Greene is only saying what most of us have known all along: "Know thyself."

Even if astrology isn't your idea of good fall evening reading, "Star Signs for Lovers" offers some humorous insights and maybe even a tip or two on that odd behavior you sometimes notice in friends and lovers.

VFW taps

Sandy vet

Bud Pullen of Sandy's VFW Post 4273 has been appointed by VFW National Commander-in-Chief James R. Currie of Sierra Vista, Ariz., to serve as a national aide-de-camp for 1982-83.

Currie, head of the 1.9 million member organization of overseas veterans, said, "It is because of the tireless efforts of civic and patriotic minded citizens like Mr. Pullen that the veterans and communities the VFW serves have been affected in a positive manner."

"Our programs touch every citizen in the community, they help the young, old, the Vietnam veteran and the World War I veteran. I am pleased to make this appointment because I know Mr. Pullen will do an outstanding job for the VFW. Our theme for this year is 'Strength Through Service,' and that means to the veteran, his community and his country," he added.

Pre-school enrolling new tots

Sandy Community Pre-school is now accepting applications for enrollment.

Applicants must be 3 1/2 to 5 years of age. Cost is $30 for registration and tuition. Monthly tuition is $15.
