

Senior Center News:

Seniors renew study of family trees

The Sandy Golden Age Club will host its annual Christmas Bazaar at the Sandy Community and Senior Center this Friday, Dec. 3, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

The monthly get-together of the genealogy class will be held this Monday from 1 to 3 p.m. Under the leadership of Maxine Taylor, persons will continue to develop techniques to aid in the research of their family histories. Newcomers are welcome.

The Sandy Golden Age Club will host a potluck next Thursday, Dec. 9, beginning at noon. This will be the only get-together the club will sponsor this month.

Entertainment will be provided by the Sandy High School Madrigal Singers.

Seniors who applied and received aid through the Low-Income Energy Assistance Program last year will be contacted in the near future by intake workers from Clackamas County.

Persons will be asked to make an appointment at that time to re-apply for assistance. Senior citizens who need help securing an appointment are asked to call the senior center at 668-5569.

Sunday film features broadcaster

A film released this fall, featuring radio broadcaster Charles Swindoll, will be shown at Sandy Baptist Church this Sunday, Dec. 5, at 6 p.m.

Swindoll is heard nationwide on the radio broadcast "Insight For Living." His books have remained on the bestseller list of Christian books for the past year. Swindoll is the pastor of the First Evangelical Free Church in Fullerton, Calif.

The film, "People of Refuge," deals with being the kind of people others can go to for encouragement when they are experiencing a crisis.

Nazarenes screen film with message

A film with a Christmas message will be shown this Sunday, Dec. 5, by the Sandy Church of the Nazarene at 6:30 p.m.

"Truce in the Forest" is based on the true story of seven young soldiers from opposing armies who meet face to face on Christmas eve. They discover the true meaning of brotherhood and peace on earth, according to Pastor Robert Schieffers.

The Church of the Nazarene meets in the Sandy Seventh-day Adventist Church, 17150 University Ave.

Vocalists set Madrigal feast

The Vocal Music Department at Sandy High School will host its second annual Madrigal Dinner Feast next Saturday, Dec. 11.

The dinner is staged in the midst of theatrical entertainment set in the 16th century, according to vocal director Bruce Scarth.

The project, hosted by the Counterpoints and Symphonic Choir, supports the vocal music fund for the groups' travel.

Cost of the dinner is $6. For reservations, call 668-8011, ext. 235.
