Quartet to herald Madrigal feast

Imagine a brass quartet playing as you wait to be seated for a 16th century feast and then lords and ladies serenading you throughout dinner with a chorus of Christmas carols and you are imagining what the Sandy High School vocal music department has in store this Saturday.

The group will present its second annual Madrigal Dinner at 6:30 p.m. in the school commons.

The entire dinner will be a choreographed play with the lords, ladies and a steward entertaining diners with toasts and merriment, complete with a sing-along and jesters performing.

The dinner, to help fund future trips and events for the vocal music department, will be hosted by Sandy High's Counterpoints and Symphonic

Choir. The commons will be decorated in a 16th century atmosphere, promises vocal music director Bruce Scarth, and a feast fitting that era will be served. Reservations are available by calling the high school at 668-8011.

Payment of $6.50 per person will be accepted at the door. Doors open at 6:15 p.m. after the brass quartet performs.

SUHS offers advancement chances

A pair of educational opportunities will be offered by Sandy Union High School in the coming weeks.

Next week SUHS will offer challenge examinations in 18 courses for students.

Monday through Wednesday, Dec. 13-15, from 2:30 to 8 p.m., challenge examinations will be offered in Applied Math; Introduction to Algebra; Algebra I; Geometry; English I, II and III; Typing; Civics; Personal Finance; Economics; French I; Spanish I; German I; U.S. History; Health; Unified Science, and Geography.

If a student completes a challenge examination successfully, he will be given credit for the course. The examinations will be held in the Career Center of the high school. Students are not required to register for the exams.

Enrollment is now open to young adults, 16-21, in the Extended Day Vocational School at SUHS.

This program is being offered as the result of a grant from the Oregon State Department of Education, Division of Vocational Educations. Classes in wood, metal and clerical-secretarial science will be offered four days a week, Monday-Thursday, beginning Jan. 3. Enrichment Math, English and basic skills instruction will also be provided in the program.

For more information on enrollment, call SUHS at 668-8011, ext. 238.
