*Lions tree sale
aids the needy, local projects*

The Sandy Lions Club is selling Christmas trees to help needy families and to help with community projects. Beginning today, Dec. 9, from noon to 9 p.m., the club is selling the trees in the lot at the corner of Pioneer Boulevard and Hoffman Avenue, across from Sandy City Hall. Costs range from $4 to $10. Proceeds after expenses will be used to assist needy families and community projects. The main thrust of the Oregon Lions Clubs is the continuing support of the Oregon Lions Sight and Hearing Foundation. The foundation budgeted $70,000 for the fiscal year from July 1, 1982 to June 10, 1983 to pay for eye examinations, eye operations and hearing operations. In the first four months, the foundation paid out nearly $62,000. The recipients of these services are the very needy and as recommended by various local Lions Clubs throughout the state. Anyone who wishes to make direct donations to the foundation may contact Dick Walker at the local Portland General Electric Company office.

Baha'is host introduction

The Baha'is of Sandy will hold an introductory meeting this Saturday, Dec. 11, at 7 p.m. at the Sandy Community Center. Topic for the evening is "God and His Relationship with Man: A Baha'i Perspective." Speaker will be Dan Popov, of Lake Oswego, a highly regarded educator, clinical psychologist and management consultant.

He has worked with families and individuals to promote those facets of the human experience that contribute to growth, excellence and well-being. The Baha'i Faith, which began in Persia in 1844, is not a sect of any religion. Rather, it is an independent world religion with adherents in more than 130,000 locales worldwide. The major teachings of Baha'u'llah, founder of the Baha'i Faith, include the belief there is only one God, that religion is progressive and unfolding, and that there is only one race—the human race. The major work of the Baha'is is promoting world unity.

The public is invited to attend this meeting. Refreshments will be served. There is no charge.
