Senior Center News:

Center bubbles with holiday plans

Sandy Garden Club member Marj Jacoby will host a wreath making workshop at her home Thursday afternoon from 1 to 4 p.m.

Registrants are reminded that they must supply their own eight-inch cuttings from evergreens. Tips taken from noble fir, spruce and cedar trees are preferable to those cut from Douglas fir or hemlock because they do not dry out as quickly.

A $1.50 fee will be collected to cover the cost of a wire wreath frame, dipped holly and a decorative bow. Enrollees are asked to meet at the Sandy Senior Center at 12:45 p.m.

Seniors will have the opportunity to tour Pittock Mansion tomorrow, Dec. 15. It has been decorated especially for the Christmas season. Transportation will be provided by the center. Departure will be at 12:30 p.m., following the Loaves and Fishes meal. Admission is $1.50.

Students from the Sandy Montessori Pre-school will entertain members of the Sandy Senior Center this Monday during a special exchange program from 10:30 to 11:30 p.m.

Seniors will be invited to visit the school at the Masonic Lodge and take part in a Christmas presentation featuring students aged 3-6.

Alan Bennett, Social Security Administration field representative, will be guest speaker at the Men's Breakfast at the center Tuesday, Dec. 21, at 7:30 p.m.

Next Thursday, Dec. 23, the center will sponsor a festive Christmas dinner and potluck beginning at noon.

The center will provide a menu of turkey, potatoes, vegetables and beverage for $1.50. It is suggested that those who attend bring a relish, salad or dessert dish, as well as their own table setting.

Reservations are requested, but not required. Entertainment will begin at approximately 1 p.m. Everyone is asked to bring along an amusing gift for under $1 for an exchange that will conclude the program.

Persons with difficulty obtaining an appointment to apply for fuel assistance or who need more information about the program, are asked to contact the Sandy Senior Center at 668-5569. Volunteers and staff will assist persons over 60 years old secure an appointment upon request.

Christmas musicals fill churches' holiday plans

Sandy Baptist Church will have a special candle light Christmas musical next Thursday, Dec. 23, at 7:30 p.m.

"We're following some of the time-honored customs of Christmas by having Christmas carols, festive cookies and candy, hot apple cider and eggnog punch," said Pastor Fred Vogel.

"Damascus Road," a 16-member singing group from Damascus Community Church, will present "I Believe He's the Son of God," a Christmas musical that combines singing with a multi-media presentation that portrays the birth of Jesus.

Besides singing in the regular services at Damascus Community Church, "Damascus Road" travels throughout the state for concerts. Leader of the group is Ray Contreras.

Dianna Lindroth, coordinator of the Christmas candle light service, said, "This is our Christmas present to Sandy. There's no charge and we'll have a well-staffed nursery. We hope this will give people from the Sandy area warm memories of this Christmas season."

The church is located at 33495 SE Jarl Road.

Pleasant Home Baptist Church will feature an all-church musical this Sunday, Dec. 19, at the 10:30 a.m. service.

The beginners, primaries and junior departments of the Sunday School will participate in this Christmas musical.

Other music scheduled for this service will be presented by the church choir, directed by Kay Joham, a mixed quartet, ladies trio and soloist Dolores Hartley.

Sunday School classes will not meet at the usual hour this Sunday.
