

Joust a great bargain in classified

Once upon a time, a fair damsel was in distress.

"The Inflation Dragon is destroying my budget," she cried.

The Black-and-White Knight heard her cry and came to her rescue. "Try classified!" he shouted. "It's joust the place to find great bargains."

So she checked classified for the things she needed, and sure enough, she found most everything she wanted at terrific savings.

And she lived economically ever after.
