Ceramic artists gain honors

Local crafts persons from Twin Cedars Crafts and Hobbies of Sandy won 42 ribbons, one plaque and two trophies recently at an Oregon State Ceramics Association show in Portland.

Irene Fenner of Sandy won the highest award in amateur competition, while Leona Jones of Boring won highest award in senior citizens' competition.

Twenty-six local entrants competed in the 1,400-exhibit show with contestants from many parts of the state and some from out of state.

Leona Jones' squirrel set won a first, best of division, best category and best of show, in addition to the prestigious Dolard Gosselin Award—one of 10 top awards in the competition.

Betty Beatty won seven firsts, a best of division and a best of category.

Fran Frinkle won a first and a second.

Irene Fenner won five firsts, a best of division, a best of category and a best of show.

Peggy Stephens won a first and a second.

Others winning first-place ribbons were Lorey Emz, Del Wamboldt, Debbie Millu, Fran Frinkle, Vi Denney, Delores Schacht and Phillip Stephens, 17.

Others winning second-place ribbons were Fran Frinkle, Tim King and Linda Fox.

Instructor is Jan Wamboldt of Twin Cedars.

Sewing machine repair shop opens

Bob White of Sandy recently announced the opening of a sewing machine repair shop, which is located in the Calico Country building, 39080 Pioneer Boulevard.

White, a six-year resident of the area, was trained at the Singer Sewing Center, which he said is "one of the largest service centers on the West Coast." The service center was located in Redwood City, but has since been moved to Mountain View, Calif.

He worked for White Stag in Portland for over three years, and has also worked for Edmondson's Drapery, Columbia Knit and at a Singer Company business in Washington Square.

He has 11 years of experience altogether.

He'll work on all brands of machines, and even joked he "fixed a machine from Russia one time."

He'll work on industrial as well as commercial machines, he said.

Businessmen get chance for hints

The Small Business Administration and Mt. Hood Community College are sponsoring a beginning business workshop this Tuesday, March 29. The workshop will run from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

The workshop will feature representatives from SBA, the Service Corps of Retired Executives, credit and collections, an accountant, business insurance specialist and a management consultant. All speakers have a working knowledge of small business.

The subjects covered will be credit and collections, record-keeping, money management, marketing and advertising, and dressing for success.

Free management aids will also be distributed and a film will be shown, time permitting. There may be time for questions and discussion.

The workshop will be held at MHCC in the Town and Gown Room.

For more information and registration, call MHCC at 667-7428.

In Optimist contest

Frosh orators compete

The top six male and female speakers in the freshman class at Sandy High School will compete this Tuesday, March 29, at 7:30 p.m. in the choir room at the school.

All 305 members of the freshman class participated in the Optimist Club's annual speech contest through freshman English classes.

The top boy and girl speakers Tuesday will advance to zone competition, with the top speakers there competing at the district level for $1,000 scholarships.

Fire board discusses dispatching switch

The Sandy Fire District board will meet this Tuesday to discuss a possible switch in dispatching services.

The local fire district has been studying a move from the Clackamas County emergency dispatching system to Clackamas Fire District 1.

Also on the agenda for Tuesday's meeting is a preliminary review of the district's 1983-84 budget.

The adjourned meeting begins at 7:30 p.m. at the main station.

BPW slates savings, loan officer

Mary Grace Oberto, officer with Willamette Savings and Loan, will be the dinner speaker at the Sandy Business and Professional Women's Club meeting April 6 at TJ's Fireside Dining at 7 p.m.

Reservations may be made by calling 668-4985 or 665-7727. Guests are welcome. President Rosella Bourgo is in charge of the program. At the March 16 meeting, reports were heard from 10 members who attended the North Willamette District Conference. The Sandy Club won the traveling Niche Award for having the greatest percentage of its members present.

Theme of the April 12 fashion show, under the direction of general chairman Marguerite Kehrl, will be "Up, Up and Away with Fashions."
