

SUHS Pionaires 3rd at Newport festival

The Sandy High School Pionaires finished third at the Newport Pop, Swing and Jazz Festival last weekend.

Ten teams competed in their division, with schools from Oregon, Washington, Idaho and California attending.

The performance was "par excellence," said Bruce Scarth, vocal music instructor. "They just outdid themselves. They did a super job this weekend."

Christine Pettingill performed a vocal solo from "Over the Rainbow." Peter Watkins and Mary Russell performed vocal solos from "Georgia on My Mind," and Pettingill accompanied them on the flute. Angela Bailor and Kecia Harris performed a vocal solo, "Summertime."

The students judged the preliminaries, listening to all the groups and then voting. Students were not allowed to vote for their own school.

The top three in each division competed in the evening. Scarth felt the local students would have taken second place overall, but they were docked for exceeding the time requirement.

Saturday the Pionaires will compete at the Pleasant Hill High School Jazz Festival. Pleasant Hill is 20 miles southeast of Eugene.
