Boring girl wins poster competition

Lisa Hopper, 14, won the Oregon Symphony youth concert poster competition in the division for eighth graders.

In all, 750 entries were received. Hopper, one of 10 winners, received a T-shirt.

She is the daughter of Al and Phyllis Hopper of Boring and attends Cedar Ridge School.

The poster has a bar of music waving in the background, with a note vibrating out.

"We are very pleased with the results and want you to know how much we appreciate the time and effort you spent on this project," wrote Delight Leonard, poster competition committee chairman, in a letter to Hopper.

Lisa Hopper

"The quality of artwork was excellent and deciding upon the winners was very difficult."

The posters of all the finalists were on display in the lobby of Portland Civic Auditorium during the youth concert series held last week.

SUHS senior finalist in pageant

Christine Pettingill, 17, has been selected as a state finalist in the 1983 Oregon National Teen-ager Pageant, which will be held at the University of Portland May 20, 21 and 22.

A senior at Sandy Union High School, Pettingill participates in music, drama and sports, is a cheerleader, and is interested in art and sewing.

She is the daughter of Nelson and Diane Pettingill of Boring.

Her sponsors include Je T'aime Photography,

Williams Thriftway, Paola's Pizza Barn, Camp Arrah Wana and the Sandy Kiwanis.

The Miss Oregon National Teen-ager Pageant is the official state finals for the Miss National Teen-ager Pageant. The winner of the Oregon pageant will receive a $1,000 cash award, a full modeling scholarship from Barbizon, a $4,000 tuition scholarship to Millikin University in Decatur, Ill., and an all-expense paid trip to compete with 51 other winners representing every state.

Dinner set

A retirement dinner in honor of Lee Doris Richards will be held May 31 at the Old Country Kitchen Restaurant in Portland at 7 p.m.

Richards is retiring after 23 years in the Sandy Elementary District.
