BCI wins for no. 1 seed

Bruce Cook Insurance managed to only drop one of the six games they played over a five-day period and enter district playoffs first in senior division standings. District playoffs for the Tri-County Baseball Association will be held at Sandy High this weekend. Three Sandy teams, BCI, Sandy VFW, and Mt. Hood

Dairy Queen, will participate along with a Corbett team. BCI was first, VFW second and DQ fourth in the seven-team league. BCI started its six-game run with a 26-7 win over Dairy Queen last Tuesday. Randy Lamm and Matt Novotny hammered one HR each and Nick Phillips and Charlie Cochran added stand-up doubles. Morgan

Emrich garnered the win in his first-ever pitching appearance. Friday BCI picked up its only loss of the week when a Lynch outfielder barely snagged a hard line drive by Novotny with a man on base to save the 3-1 win for Lynch. BCI gained revenge on Saturday as Darrin Pullen pitched a 9-0 shutout against Lynch One.

VFW joins playoff teams

By winning two close games Saturday Sandy VFW moved into second place in Tri-County League senior division (ages 13-14) play. The VFW won 4-3 over Corbett, and 10-9 over Lynch. They take a 7-8 record into the district tournament in Sandy this weekend.

DQ set for playoffs

Sandy Dairy Queen split games with Corbett last week, finished up fourth in senior division action and will play this weekend in the district tournament at Sandy. They take a 6-9 league record into the tournament. In the first game Dairy Queen won 8-6 with Sean Fenwick contributing the winning home run. Corbett jumped to a 6-0 lead on DQ walks and errors. "Sandy finally woke up at 10 o'clock Saturday morning," Coach Stu Simonson said. In the third inning Kenny Ouderkerk singled, Doug Simonson walked, and Scott Middlemis singled in Ouderkerk. Robert Rising singled in the two base runners as Sandy got within two. In the fifth inning Clayton Hull stole home to tie the game and send it into extra innings. In the top of the sixth Robins singled and Fenwick hit the first pitch down the left field line for his second league home run and the win. Fenwick hit another home run in the second game, which Sandy lost 5-2. Mark Krusson also contributed a home run.

Mt. Hood Meadows plans run July 30

The promotion: "The Great Meadows to Meadows Mountain Run—Run, if you dare!" The "If you dare!" is not an empty threat. The course from Hood River

Meadows to Mt. Hood Meadows climbs 827 feet over five miles (to a 5,350-foot elevation), with the final climb up the Meadows' driveway all uphill.

Midgets win two

The Sandy Midget Americans (ages 8-10) have won twice recently against Rockwood. The second win gave them a 4-10-1 record. In the first game Jeremy Quiett got a two-RBI triple, and Trent Waibel hit a one-RBI triple. Brian Haines also handled a hard line drive at third and turned a double play during that 15-13 win.

This year's race will be July 30 at 10 a.m. Entry fee is $6.50 in advance, $8 the day of the race. Registration forms are available at Action Outfitters. Call 255-0856 for more information. Runners may meet at the Mt. Hood Meadows parking lot where transportation to Hood River Meadows will be provided. Entrants will receive a Meadows to Meadows tank top.

PAOLA'S PIZZA BARN

Congratulations to: Greg Martin

Greg Martin, 10, is prep of the week. He was the winner of the Soap Box Derby junior division races recently, and will represent Sandy in Akron, Ohio, next month for the world championships. He also likes to play baseball and soccer. Way to go, Greg!

Enjoy great pizzas & good times at Paola's!

Bill Who?

Bill is "old" to the community, but "new" in sales at Carlson Chevrolet. After an 8-year stint in the 60's selling "Brand X" cars, Bill wisely broadened his career & ventured into real estate in Sandy. As a real estate broker, his career flourished, but after many job offers by Carlson Chevrolet, Bill finally agreed to join our sales staff. We impressed Bill with the quality of the many new models offered by Chevrolet, both in cars & trucks. To the many local residents to whom he has sold homes during the last 15 years, Bill would now like to put a new Chevrolet in your garage. If you haven't recognized this friendly face by now, we proudly introduce:

Classic set July 23, 24

Forty Hollywood celebrities are expected to compete in the second annual golf and tennis Celebrity Classic at Rippling River July 23 and 24. Friday the celebrities will visit the Kiwanis Camp for handicapped children, and will entertain the campers there with a short show. The Alpine Slide at Ski Bowl will be their next stop, and then it will be on to Timberline Lodge for a luncheon and tour. That evening they will return to Rippling River for a cocktail reception. The golf and tennis tournaments will begin Saturday, and will include a trick shot demonstration by Rippling River's own pro, Jim Skaugstad. That night a dinner event will feature the Hollywood stars at the resort's convention center. Sunday there will be more golf and tennis. For tickets or more information call 1-800-452-4612.
