Bride continues tradition

Sara Jane Shreeve and Glenn Charles Clemons were married Aug. 13 at the Smith Memorial Presbyterian Church in Fairview.

They will be at home in Rock Island, Ill., on Sept. 20, where he is employed at an accounting firm.

Mrs. Clemons attended Sandy High School and Oregon State University. She is the daughter of Stanley and Ruth Shreeve of Boring.

He is a 1983 graduate of OSU, and is the son of Richard and Marlene Clemons of Coos Bay.

They were married by long-time friend and minister, the Rev. Bill Hearn.

She carried her great-grandmother's handkerchief, and wore the earrings her mother wore at her wedding.

Sandy Shreeve, sister of the bride, was the honor attendant. Bridesmaids were Cynthia Lakey, Bonnie Jarstad, Bobbie Allen and Jackie Layng.

The best man was Dean Clemons of Coos Bay, brother of the groom.

Ushers were Keith Hicks of Snoqualmie, Wash., Keith Kusik of Schaumburg, Ill., Ross Grobin of North Bend, Ore., Greig Hanson of Portland, Donald Ohl of Edwardsville, Ill., and John Oliver of Oakland, Ill.

The flower girl was Megan Poole, the bride's cousin.

Dawn Davidson

Miss Teen from Sandy

Dawn Alissa Davidson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Davidson, has been selected to represent Oregon at the national Miss Teen of America Pageant in Duluth, Minnesota. The pageant will be held Sept. 23 through Oct. 2.

Dawn attended Sandy High School her freshmen and sophomore years and her father teaches at Sandy Elementary School.

Miss Teen of Oregon was crowned in June at Nendel's Inn in Corvallis. Dawn competed with 51 girls from throughout the state for the title.

The competition was based on academic scholarship, talent, and personal development through service to school and community. At Sandy High, Dawn maintained an A average while active both in drama and French Club.

She now attends Grant High School in Portland where she is president of the Drama Club and a member of the National Honor Society.

Dawn recently had several poems published in a student anthology through the Writer to Writer program at Lewis and Clark College. Her other hobbies include sewing, reading, painting, swimming and skiing.

By winning the Miss Teen of Oregon title, Dawn earned a $1,000 scholarship and a chance to earn a $15,000 scholarship at the national pageant. At the national competition she will be expected to speak to various groups, do a presentation on her state at a Duluth school, appear in a fashion show and represent a famous character out of Oregon's history. She will also do a talent presentation.

Sandy graduate tops in Seabee training

Floyd Proctor, a 1981 graduate of Sandy High School, is finishing up a two-week leave and will be stationed in Coronado, Calif., with the Amphibious Construction Battalion for two years of shore duty.

He leaves for Coronado Aug. 26.

He reported to boot camp in San Diego for the Seabees on March 1, graduating April 29.

From there he went to Port Hueneme, Calif., for construction mechanics, where he developed his skills working on gas and diesel engines, along with other instruction.

He graduated in the top five of his class. After a week in combat training he received his leave.

He is the son of Willie and Evelyn Proctor of Sandy. Willie Proctor also served with the Seabees.

Four-year-old Jacob Monnes of Boring thinks he has a better idea for how to spend a summer afternoon than does his father, Randy.
