BPW sets fashion show

New trends in ski and equestrian wear, holiday and bridal fashions, career dressing, school and sports wear for men, women and children will be shown by models at the "Fall into Fashion Show" Oct. 18 at 8 p.m. at Sandy Union High School.

The show is sponsored by the business and professional women and merchants of the Sandy-Gresham area as a benefit for a 1984 BPW scholarship.

Speakers at the "Politics and You" dinner meeting earlier this month included Ruth Baumbach and Florence Schmitz, representing the local and state political action committees. Kimberly Nelson explaining how to be effective in your own neighborhood and Lani Staab explaining how lobbying makes our interests. She said, "Public policy affects you. You are the public."

New member Shirley Jewett was welcomed. She is assistant cook in food services at Cottrell School, bookkeeper for Troutdale Auto Parts and a teacher's aide at Good Shepherd Day School.

Guests were Judy Dunston, secretary for E.W. Eldridge Construction Co.; Ethel Fox, head cook in food services at Cottrell School; Joanne Harsey, partner in Vanport Manufacturing Co. Inc.; and Betty Jones, Gresham representative for Welcome Wagon.

The Oct. 26 meeting will be held at the home of Eula TenEyck at 7 p.m.

Overeaters Anonymous to meet

The first meeting of Overeaters Anonymous in Sandy will be Monday, Oct. 17 from 7:30 to 9 p.m. at St. Michael's Catholic Church, 18090 S.E. Langensand.

For more information call Margie at 622-4956 or Jean at 668-8146.

Missionary to speak at church

Bruce Paden, a missionary appointee with the Conservative Baptist Foreign Mission Society, will speak at the Pleasant Home Baptist Church on Oct. 16 at the 11 a.m. service and the potluck that follows.

The church is located five miles east of Gresham at 32120 Dodge Park Boulevard.

He and his wife Anita will serve in Zaire. The Padens previously worked with another mission in the Central African Republic for ten years.

Chiropractors attend seminar

Drs. Schuyler and Jane Lininger, Sandy chiropractors, have just returned from a three-day preventive medicine seminar held in San Francisco.

The seminar, "Clinical Applications of Nutritional Biochemistry," focused on nutritional care for chronic illness with an emphasis on allergies and biochemical imbalances.

It was conducted by Jonathan V. Wright, M.D. and his associate Alan R. Gaby, M.D. Dr. Wright, noted author and nutritional doctor from Kent, Wash., is the medical columnist for "Prevention," reportedly the most widely read nutritional magazine in the world.

More than 100 doctors from as far away as Alaska and Australia were in attendance.

Dr. Schuyler Lininger, an associate professor in practical nutrition at Western States Chiropractic College in Portland, was recently appointed to the Scientific Advisory Board of the National Foundation for Nutritional Research. Other members of this board include Linus Pauling, Lendon Smith, M.D. and Jonathan Wright, M.D.

Man lodged for assault

Walter John Freauff, 55, of Sandy was lodged in the Clackamas County jail Oct. 10 for assault-abuse prevention, according to Sandy police department files. On Oct. 9, Susan G. Wilson, 26, of Boring was charged with shoplifting at Sandy Sentry.

Surprise Package. A New McDonald's and Ronald Too.

Surprises are in store when a new McDonald's open in your neighborhood. Bring the kids in this Saturday, October 15, from 1 to 3 p.m. to celebrate our Grand Opening with their favorite clown Ronald McDonald. Expect fun for the whole family. And of course, plenty of good McDonald's food. A new McDonald's restaurant and Ronald McDonald — isn't that a nice surprise?

HOW TO GET A DOLLAR'S WORTH OF HEAT FOR ABOUT 50¢.

If you heat with a furnace, an add-on heat pump can cut your heating bill about in half.

That's more than a substantial savings. And it cools in summer too.

So, why wait?

Look in the Yellow Pages under heat pumps. And call a dealer, today.
