Potluck meal marks season

The Sandy Golden Age Club will usher in the Christmas season beginning at noon today with a festive potluck meal followed by the Sandy Silvertones.

Members of the organization and guests alike are invited to join in the fun. Those attending are reminded to come with an appropriate dish for the buffet as well as their own table service.

The Sandy Union High School Pioneers will perform a selection of contemporary Christmas songs for seniors on Tuesday, Dec. 13. Under the direction of Bruce Scarth, students will begin their program following the Loaves and Fishes meal at approximately 12:30 p.m.

Seniors who received fuel assistance last year but have not been contacted by the Clackamas County Community Action Agency to schedule an appointment for assistance this year should call the Sandy Senior Center at 668-5569. Senior center staff will provide help in obtaining appointments upon request for those over 60 years of age after Dec. 8. Additional information concerning the Low-Income Energy Assistance Program can also be obtained by contacting the center.

Clackamas Community College's Thermal Energy Department recently announced a new program designed to help seniors with the cost of repairing gas and oil furnaces as well as electrical heating equipment. Thermal energy students will troubleshoot, diagnose and repair furnaces, baseboard heaters and heat pumps for low-income seniors. For more information contact the Sandy Senior Center.

Library's tree needs gifts to aid looks

The Christmas tree at Sandy Public Library will be bare this year without the help of the community.

Children are invited to hear Christmas stories and make Christmas ornaments during the Wednesday evening story hours through Christmas week. Story hour is held from 7 to 8 p.m.

Patrons of all ages are encouraged to bring in canned food items or wrapped gifts for under the tree in conjunction with the Community Action Center and Kiwanis Christmas baskets. Wrapped gifts for children should designate the applicable age and whether the gift is for a girl or boy.

This is the time of year to share in whatever way we can to help make Christmas a little brighter for those families experiencing difficult times. Donations will be accepted through Dec. 21.

Sandy represented

Hi-Boards tap student

Angela Bailor, a senior at Sandy High School, will represent this area in a Hi-Board program being sponsored by a Gresham bridal store.

From 12 to 15 girls applied for the spot reserved for Sandy, according to Patti Weston, of Patti's Bridal Decor and More.

Selecting one girl was "very hard," said Weston. Personality, involvement in activities and the desire to represent one's school were among the factors considered. "We wanted girls who really wanted to do this," said Weston.

At least one activity will include a fund raiser for the March of Dimes, which benefits people with muscular dystrophy. What that activity will be has yet to be determined.

The girls, from Estacada, Sandy, Corbett, Columbia, Gresham, Reynolds, Centennial and Barlow high schools, will gain experience in modeling in shows and for photographers.

They will each host fashion shows in their respective schools, modeling prom dresses and tuxedos.

The Hi-Boards will be topped off with sponsorship at the Portland Bridal Fair in Memorial Coliseum February 25 and 26.

Weston said Hi-Boards was a popular program in Portland some time ago, but was abandoned by the major department stores. She said she understands it may be started again.

Regardless, Weston feels this program offers a good opportunity for girls who live east of Portland.

Chamber plans dinner

The Mt. Hood Area Chamber of Commerce's Christmas dinner will be held at Timberline Lodge on Dec. 14.

The cost is $25 per couple, or $12.50 per person.

Scouts have paper drive

A paper drive to raise funds for the Boy Scouts was a success, with over 14 tons of paper being collected.

The paper drive was sponsored by the VFW Post and Auxiliary.

Drinks will be served at 7 p.m., with dinner at 8.

For an additional $2.50 per person, round trip transportation will be provided from Hoodland Plaza to Timberline Lodge. The bus will leave at the Deli at 6:30, and reservations should be made immediately. The bus will leave Timberline at 11 p.m. Call 622-3121 or 622-3659.

Tickets are available at Clackamas County Bank, the U.S. Bank, Flowers by Fireside at the Calico Caboose, and Cook's Motel.

"Timberline promises a gorgeous dinner," said Patti Cook, organizer of the Christmas dinner.

Cub Scouts collect food

Cub Scout Pack 663 will be out collecting canned food for the Kiwanis on Saturday, Dec. 10 from 10 a.m. till noon.

WORLD'S FAIR NEW ORLEANS

The theme of the fair is "The World of Rivers-Fresh Water as a Source of Life." New Orleans lends itself perfectly to this theme inasmuch as it is the world's second largest port and our country's largest. Within the Fair Site you will find intricate networks of lagoons, streams and aqueducts, not to mention the most distinctive feature of the Fair, "Wonderwall." Wonderwall is a 2300 foot long structure that will include every imaginable type of architecture. While in New Orleans tour Jackson Square, historical St. Charles Avenue-complete with universities, parks and the only operational streetcar line in New Orleans. You will also see many lovely antebellum homes built during the South's "Golden Age."

Visit the French Quarter, taking in the sites of Bourbon Street, and enjoy a lunch at the Cafe du Monde for Cafe Au Lait and Beignets, everybody's favorite. In the evening a visit to the worldrenowned Arnaud's is a must for a dinner at this French restaurant that will never be forgotten.

A cruise on New Orleans' newest and most luxurious paddlewheel vessel, the Creole Queen with its plush carpeting, elegant draperies, and colorful lighting will be a special adventure.
