

The Joysong youth group will present a program on June 22 at the Assembly of God Church in Boring.

'Joysong' to be in Sandy

A youth choir from Lewiston, Idaho, called Joysong, will perform at the Assembly of God Church in Boring on Friday, June 22 at 7 p.m.

The group is comprised of about 30 high school and college-aged people.

The Assembly of God

Church is located at 27850 SE Highway 212 in Boring. The public is invited.

The group is on a 12-day, three-state tour. They will be presenting selections from the "We Will Stand" and "The Secret of Love" musicals.

Combining drama and contemporary music, Joysong brings across the message of a total commitment to Jesus Christ.

A number of letters of recommendation were provided by Joysong. Pastor Darrell Arneson of Kenmore, Wash., wrote: "Never have I heard a youth choir that performed more professionally and yet still ministered to their audience."

Church in Boring to show films

The "Focus on the Family" film series continues at the Assembly of God Church in Boring on Sunday, June 24.

The 7 p.m. film will be "Preparing for Adolescence: The Origins of Self-Doubt."

The film series was prepared specifically for adults, according to Pastor Steven Stewart. The series, by Dr. James Dobson, provides good, solid basics on family life, in Stewart's opinion.

Reportedly, over 20 million people have seen the film series.

Child care will be provided. The church is located at 27850 SE Highway 212 in Boring.

On July 1, also at 7 p.m. at the church, the film will be, "Preparing for Adolescence: Peer Pressure and Sexuality."

On July 8, the film will be, "What Wives Wish their Husbands Knew about Women — The Lonely Housewife."

On July 15, the topic will be, "What Wives Wish their Husbands Knew about Women — Money, Sex and Children."

David and Beverly Summer of Brightwood welcomed Kyle Richard to their family on April 25.

Kyle was born at Bess Kaiser Hospital, weighing 8 pounds, 14 ounces. He was 21 inches long.

He joins a brother, Colby, who is 2½.

Grandparents are Ray and Pat Searls of Boring, Dick Summer of Brightwood and Mary Ann Summer of Lanham, Maryland.

Great-grandmother is Mrs. A. C. Cooper of Lorain, Ohio.

Vacation Bible School set

The Sandy Church of Christ will conduct a vacation Bible school June 24-28 from 7 to 9 p.m.

The Church of Christ is located at 39640 Pioneer Boulevard.

The theme for this event is "God's Wonderful Surprises." The Bible lessons use a fair/circus motif to get the student's attention and then proceed to teach the truth and love of Jesus. There are classes for all age groups from 2 years old through adults.

The school will feature

Bible stories, songs, crafts, memory verses, refreshments, clown skits and puppet plays.

The special course for teenagers is entitled "TNT for The Soul." It is designed to win the hearts of youth with a blend of fellowship, humor and solid Bible learning.

An extraordinary feature of this vacation Bible school is the adult class entitled "Surviving Life's Surprises," designed to provide biblical solutions to five of life's unpleasant problems. The topics are "The Despair of Disappointments," "The Pain of Loneliness," "The Grip of Guilt," "The Burden of Grief," and "The Anguish of Aging."

The public is invited. To pre-register or get further information, call 668-6116

Baptists host speaker

Featured speaker at the Sandy Baptist Church on Sunday, June 24 will be the Rev. Larry McCracken, the general director of the Conservative Baptist Association of Oregon.

Service at the church, which is located at 33495 SE Jarl Road, will be at 11 a.m. There will be an anniversary potluck at 1:30 p.m. The public is invited to attend both functions.

At 6 p.m. on Sunday, the Sandy Baptist Church will host Jack and Judy Bevilacqua, who feature special gifts of singing, puppeteering and the playing of unusual instruments. An hour of family enjoyment is promised.
