

Miss Mt. Hood Area

She is also optimistic about an album Rex Recording Studio in Portland is putting together. She is pleased with the material the writers have given her, and described the music as "rock 'n' roll Christian" with a top 40 sound.

At the Miss Mt. Hood Area Scholarship Pageant, held at MHCC, Cansler said she was extremely nervous, despite all her experience as a performer. "I've never been so nervous in my whole life (as for the interview with the judges)," she said. "It takes the cake, I'll tell you." The nervousness didn't go away even after the interview with the judges. "I was really scared until they opened the curtains. Then I said, 'It's time to relax.'" In the talent portion, she performed a jazzy version of "Put a Little Love in Your Heart." Contestants are also judged in bathing suit and evening gown competition. Asked if she was surprised to have won, Cansler said, "I was shocked. I didn't expect to win."

"There was this complete silence; they kept you in suspense." Her goals are to make it as a recording artist, and to get a degree in performing arts. One gets the impression she would be happy doing anything that has to do with performing.

Alice Weaver works with primary-age children in the Sandy Seventh-day Adventist Church's vacation Bible school. School will be held again next week, from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m.

Bible school planned

"Growing God's Way" is the theme for Vacation Bible School at Dover Community Church on June 25-29. The teaching will be on "the fruit of the spirit," said Pauline Moore, director of the program.

Vacation Bible School is available for children 4 years old through the sixth grade. The classes, which will include Bible stories, crafts, games and refreshments, will take to arrange for transportation or for further information.
