

Madison, Scotch set for August wedding

Leann Joice Madison and Gary Michael Scotch, both of Portland, have announced their plans to be married.

They are planning an August, 1985 wedding at the home of Marilyn Leslie, Rhododendron. Leslie is Madison's sister.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Eugene and Ilse Madison of Sandy. She is a 1979 graduate of Sandy High School, and attended Mt. Hood Community College. She graduated in 1984 from Oregon State University with a bachelor of science degree in distributive education.

At Sandy High School she participated in cross country, swimming and track. In college she participated in track and DECA, and is a member of OBEA, a professional organization.

Madison is currently a supervisor at Loehmann's Inc., a clothing store in Beaverton.

Scotch is the son of George Scotch of Sublimity, Ore. He is a 1979 graduate of Central High School in Monmouth, and attended Mt. Hood Community College, Chemeketa Community College, Indiana and the University of Pennsylvania. He is a 1984 graduate of Oregon State University with degrees in finance and international business.

He participated in athletics throughout high school and college.

Scotch is in sales with the Business Equipment Bureau in Portland.

Baucom attains scholar title

Douglas Baucom of Sandy was among the 220 students on the president's list fall quarter at the Oregon Institute of Technology, Klamath Falls. Inclusion on the list requires that a student attain at least a 3.70 grade point average.

Palmer in NATO function

Pfc. Steve Palmer, son of Muriel Palmer of New York and brother of Chris Palmer of Sandy, was involved in NATO-sponsored exercises in Germany recently.

The exercise was designed to develop uniformity of doctrine, standardize procedures for rapid response to a crisis and demonstrate solidarity in commitment to NATO goals and objectives.

Palmer is an indirect-fire infantryman with the 47th Infantry Division at Fort Carson, Colo.

He is a 1982 graduate of Sandy High School.
