Hair Line open house set Saturday

Lynn Olson, owner of The Hair Line, will be hosting a grand opening Feb. 16, and will offer a number of bargains Valentine's Week.

Olson said the bargains will include $5 off on all permanents, haircuts for $7 and silk wraps, $20 and $25. Silk wraps are to strengthen nails. With fingernail tips, the cost will be $25. Also, decals will be available for the first time.

Olson bought the shop from Vicki O'Malley on Nov. 1 and said she is excited about being in business for herself, but added "it's scary."

She has worked at The Hair Line since graduating from the Multnomah College of Hair Design 7½ years ago. She attends, and requires employees to attend, at least three shows a year to keep up on the current styles.

Her goal is to offer a full range of beauty services, from hair and nail care to make-up.

The public is invited to attend the open house. Salads, meats and treats will be served from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturday, Feb. 16.

Employees include Ann Fenwick and Shannon Montgomery. Cathy Coy works part time.

Wheel alignment business opens

Tom Ferrenburg opened up Dec. 1, the worst time of the year, and managed to break even in a month with only 18 business days. He is the owner of Tom's Wheel Alignment and Suspension Repair.

Ferrenburg is leasing space from Rick New at Sandy 76, which was formerly New's Union 76. Ferren-burg reports the shop has been steam cleaned, and Clayton Allen is working full time as a mechanic.

As for Ferrenburg, he has worked for his father, who sells heavy equipment in Portland, and has repaired power equipment, such as hydraulic systems. He worked for a year at John's Frame Shop in Gresham. To put it more succinctly, "I've been a mechanic all my life."

Ferrenburg said he aligns cars and trucks the old-fashioned way. "Every car is different," he said, "like a fingerprint."

He points out "alignments are our business, not a sideline." He said he can handle 4-wheel drive vehicles — front and back — steering box adjustments, frame and axle straightening, strut adjustments and electrical work.

New business helps with tools

B & R Rental Center has opened up at 14601 SE Orient Drive, which is at the intersection of Orient Drive and Kelso Road.

Bernie Younker, owner, pointed out that renting tools — for small or large jobs — helps eliminate the cost of large purchases, storage and maintenance.

They have a limited inventory but are continually adding items, Younker said.

Winter hours are from 7:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., Monday through Saturday.

Dover Extension plans sale

The Dover Extension study group has announced its annual bake sale, to be held Friday, Feb. 8 from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. at Clackamas County Bank in Sandy. A Valentine's Day theme is planned.

A good variety of baked goods will be offered for sale, including homemade bread, apple pies, cookies, cupcakes and brownies.

Proceeds from the sale will be used primarily for 4-H campships, and scholarships for 4-H Week at OSU next summer. Thanks to the good response from the sale last year, the study group was able to aid four members from this community.

The group is soliciting donations of baked goods from 4-H members and the community at large so that this sale will be even more successful.
