

Candy sales begin

The Camp Fire Bluebirds will be selling mints, chocolate-covered peanut caramel clusters and chocolate-covered almonds as part of a fund raiser. The money will go toward paying membership dues and for day

Reading workshop planned

Tutoring adults in reading will be the focus of a 12-hour workshop planned by the Mt. Hood Literacy Council for Tuesdays and Fridays, Feb. 26 and March 1, 5 and 8.

Participants in the workshop will learn the "Each One Teach One" method of tutoring, which allows tutor and student to work at a pace suited to each individual's speed in learning.

Workshop sessions, scheduled for 6:45 to 10 p.m., will be held at the Learning Center in the Salvation Army Annex building at Fourth and Main streets in Gresham. Entrance to the Center is on Main Street by the Salvation Army sign.

A charge of $15 covers the cost of books needed by trainees. Anyone wishing to register may send a check, made out to Mt. Hood Literacy Council, to Jeane Gordon, 12750 Lani Lane, Boring, Ore., 97009. Registration deadline is Feb. 22.

Gordon, workshop trainer, also invites established tutors who may want some review help to attend the second or third sessions at no charge.

The Mt. Hood Council, arm of Oregon Literacy Inc., includes Sandy, Boring, Gresham, Damascus, Corbett and Welches.

Tutors sought by Center

ESOL tutors (for second-language students) are needed at the Learning Center, said Dick Craig, tutor-student coordinator for the Mt. Hood Literacy Council. People who can help Monday or Wednesday evenings are asked to call Craig at 663-6477.

Obituaries

Richard Detherage

Services for Richard Earl Detherage, who died on Feb. 6, were held Saturday, Feb. 9 at the Sandy Assembly of God Church. Burial took place at Sandy Ridge Cemetery in Boring.

Mr. Detherage was born in Oskaloosa, Iowa, on Feb. 21, 1933. At the age of 4½, after the death of his mother, he moved to San Diego, Calif., where he resided with his sister and brother-in-law. While in San Diego, he enjoyed swimming daily. In 1942, he moved to Oregon and attended grade school at Bensmead, and Gresham High School, where he was active in the band. He was active in the music department of the Gresham Assembly of God Church. During his teen years he met Geraldine, his wife, whom he married in 1951. They sang together and were active in many church activities. Geraldine and Richard had three children: Richard Lee Detherage of Boring, Nancy Ridgeway of Sandy and Linda Smith of Sandy, who were involved in music ministry.

Mr. Detherage was employed at Reynolds Metal Company until his death. He also worked in sales for Fanning Chevrolet, Sears and Roebuck and Buck Ambulance Service. He spent countless hours at the Boring Fire Department and helped initiate a first-aid program. At the time of his death, he held the rank of captain with the fire department.

His many activities included camping, hunting, motorcycling, boating, water skiing, hiking and beachcombing. He also enjoyed doing body work, mechanical work, carpentry, and repair work on vacation trailers. Survivors include his wife, children and four grandchildren. Also surviving are three sisters: Golda Giedon of California, Lucille Parker of Gresham, Viola Erickson of Sandy; and one brother: Delmer Detherage of California.

Make memorial contributions to the Sandy Assembly of God Church. Sandy Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Dorothy Bruns

Dorothy Bruns, widow of music composer George E. Bruns, died of cancer at her home near Sandy on Feb. 10 at the age of 58.

Mrs. Bruns was born Dorothy Colclough in Honolulu, Hawaii, on July 20, 1926. She was raised in Washington, D.C., and Southern California.

She was married to George Bruns in California on April 10, 1965. They remained in California where her husband was employed by Disney Studios.

In 1971 they moved to Sandy to make their permanent home. Mrs. Bruns was active in Oregon Ladies Amateur Golf and was a member of the Mount Hood Golf Club.

She is survived by two sons: John T. Harris Jr. of Dillingham, Ala., and Oswald S.C. Bruns of Holly Loch, Scotland; three daughters: Kathleen B. Harris of Lake Tahoe, Calif., Gigi A. Baker and her husband, Benjamin D. Baker, of Sandy, and Dorothy A. Bruns, also of Sandy; her mother: Mrs. Oswald S. Colclough, of Cross Junction, Va.; two sisters: Mrs. Frederick A.F. Cooke of Cross Junction, Va., and Mrs. John R. Alexander Jr. of Crownsville, Maryland; and two grandchildren.

The family suggests contributions to the Good Shepherd Episcopal Church, Sandy, or Mt. Hood Hospice. Funeral was held Wednesday, Feb. 13 at St. Michael's Catholic Church.

Sandy Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Senior Center news

Tickets available for symphony

The Sandy Senior Center has tickets available for people interested in attending the symphony on Sunday, Feb. 14 at the Arlene Schnitzer Concert Hall in Portland.

This is an opportunity for interested persons to see the new concert hall, as well as hear the symphony at a reasonable cost. Featured will be the works of Mozart, Quantz, Wagner and Respighi. Cost will be $5.50, which includes transportation. All fees are due at the time of registration.

Clackamas Town Center will be the destination of a shopping trip scheduled for Friday, Feb. 15. Departure is 10:30 a.m. and return is approximately 4 p.m. Now is the time to take advantage of February sales, or just browse and see the new spring fashions now arriving in the stores. Cost will be $1 for transportation.

Activities Feb. 14-21

The Hoodview Academy third grade class will perform on Tuesday, Feb. 19 at 12:30 p.m. following the Loaves and Fishes meal. The class is putting together a skit especially for the entertainment of Sandy's senior citizens.

Plans have been completed for the spaghetti lunch at the Center on Friday, Feb. 22 at noon. The meal, which will include spaghetti, salad, bread and beverage, will benefit the Loaves and Fishes program. Cherry pie, offered for dessert, will help in the celebration of George Washington's real birthday.

Tickets are $3.50 per person. After lunch, lively entertainment and a fast game of bunco will be offered.

The public is invited. Tickets will be available at the door.
