Spaghetti dinner set Friday

The big event of this week at the Sandy Senior Center will be a benefit spaghetti dinner, which is to be held at noon on Feb. 22.

The menu will consist of spaghetti, salad, beverage, garlic bread and a George Washington cherry dessert. Tickets, at $3.50 a person, will be available at the door on a first come, first serve basis.

A lively game of Bunco will follow the lunch, with prizes offered for the lucky winners. Proceeds from the event will benefit the Loaves and Fishes program.

A group will be going to Mt. Hood

Community College on Feb. 18 at 7 p.m. to see the musical "Barnum," which portrays the life of P.T. Barnum, the circus promoter. Tickets are still available at the Center. Call 668-5569 if interested.

On Feb. 25 at 1 p.m. a travel workshop will be held at the Center for anyone interested in discussing various options for future overnight and longer trips to be taken in the next year. Leslie Myvold, of Sandy Travel, will be there to help with the planning.

The February dine-out will be held at the Tollgate Inn on Feb. 27 with departure scheduled for 5:15 p.m. The Tollgate Inn is offering a choice of pot roast or chicken fried steak, with soup or salad, vegetable, dinner roll, coffee or tea at a cost of $5, or soup and a turkey sandwich with tea and coffee for $4. A deposit of $1 is required upon registration at the Center.
