

Students tap Erwin as editor

Carey Erwin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Erwin of Sandy, was elected editor of the college newspaper, "The Southwestern," for the 1985-86 school year at Southwestern Adventist College. He was elected by the student body in February.

The Student Association is responsible for planning social events, operating the student center, and publishing the student newspaper, yearbook and college directory. It also acts as the students' representative to the college administration, recommending various courses of action regarding all aspects of campus life.

Carey Erwin is a sophomore communication major at the college. Ray Erwin is pastor of the Sandy Seventh-day Adventist Church.

Southwestern is a fully-accredited liberal arts college owned and operated by the Seventh-day Adventist Church. Its 700 students are enrolled in 35 majors leading to baccalaureate degree, 20 programs for associate degree, and various preprofessional and terminal curricula.

Founded in 1893, Southwestern Adventist College is located 30 miles southeast of Fort Worth.

Church set for 'Krusade' March 25-29

The Living Way Fellowship is sponsoring its second annual "Kids Krusade" March 25-29 from 7 to 8 p.m.

It will be held during spring vacation. "The party atmosphere will set the tone for the presents/presence of God at the Kids Krusade," said Heide Sheppard, director of children's ministries at Living Way. "What more could a child ask for than a party that lasts all week long?"

All children, from age 2 through the sixth grade, are invited to attend this week of fun and games. Presents will be given away and special speakers will be in attendance.

Children under the age of 5 will need to be accompanied by a parent or guardian. High school guardians will be on sale at 50 cents a child for the hour.

The church is located at 17475 Strauss Street, across from the Sandy Elementary Grade School.

Aerobics offered locally

Classes in aerobic dance are being offered at Kelso School through June. They begin at 5:30 p.m., and are held Mondays through Thursdays. Cost is from $1.25 to $2 per class.

"Your exercise program should be a life-long commitment, but if you've been neglecting it lately, now is the time to turn over a new leaf and shape up," Hawley said. She added that bathing suit weather is just around the corner.

For more information call Hawley at 666-1261 before 4 p.m., Mondays through Thursdays.
