

Herbal walk planned for Saturday

Spring is here, and it is time for wild edibles and medicinal plants to come out. Tamera Murray is planning a nature walk on Saturday, June 1 at 2 p.m.

It will be at 49645 S.E. Wildcat Mountain Road, which is 10 miles southeast of Sandy in the Mt. Hood area. Bring a pad and pen.

Cost is $10 per person, $17.50 per couple and $5 for seniors.

For reservations or more information call, in the evenings, Karen (622-5294) or, during the day, Judy (666-7575). Or write: Tamera Murray, 19880 E. Victory Lane, Sandy, Ore., 97055. A meal is planned utilizing plants picked on the walk.

Scholars treated to breakfast

Cottrell Grade School will host its first Scholars Breakfast on Thursday, May 28 at 7 a.m. in the Lundy Building. Guests will include all honor students, their parents and members of the staff.

Airman completes training

Navy Airman Recruit September L. Harris, daughter of Carol Schimschok-Baer of Brightwood, has completed recruit training at Recruit Training Command, Orlando, Fla.

During Harris's eight-week training cycle, she studied general military subjects designed to prepare her for further academic and on-the-job training in one of the Navy's 85 basic fields.

Harris's studies included seamanship, close order drill, Naval history and first aid. Personnel who complete this course of instruction are eligible for three hours of college credit in physical education and hygiene.

Kruger takes third in ESD spelling contest

More than 40 students competed for first, second and third place in three divisions of the Clackamas County Spelling Contest, which was held earlier this month on the Marylhurst campus. The contest was sponsored by the Clackamas Education Service District.

Among the winners was Robert Kruger, a sophomore at Sandy High School who placed third in the division for 10th-12th graders.

The winners had the fewest misspellings on a written test containing 30 words.
