

Knicks hit jackpot

The New York Knicks hit the jackpot when they won the rights to draft Patrick Ewing during the first annual NBA lottery. Ewing, who led his Georgetown team to three NCAA championship games, is labeled a franchise player. His impact on New York has already generated 5000 season ticket sales and his presence should excite the whole NBA.

Mets pitcher

Dwight Gooden is always striving to do his best. A fine combination of speed, finesse and power mixed with exceptional poise has New York fans chanting "Dr. K."

Mac told to clean up his act

Top-seeded bad boy John McEnroe and his rival Jimmy Connors won't be playing on the U.S. Davis Cup team. Told to "clean up their act" or not play, they both chose to sit this one out.

TOUGH TO BEAT

Leon Araiza, 12-year-old champ from Beaverton Boxing Club, has compiled an amazing record of 73-7 over the last three years. Among his other triumphs:

- Two consecutive titles at the Inland Empire Golden Gloves Tournament.
- The outstanding junior boxer award for the Tacoma Golden Gloves Club.
- Winner of the Warm Springs' Buckskin Tournament.
- Winner of the Northwest Tournament of Champions.

Leon's ultimate goal — to add the Olympics to his list.
