Strawberry social called a success

A fun time was had by all who attended the Strawberry Shortcake Social at the Sandy Senior Center on June 14. This was made possible through a donation of fresh strawberries from Bill and Arthur Erickson. Their generosity helped to make the event a successful fund-raising endeavor to benefit the Loaves and Fishes program.

Members of the Sandy Senior Center have also begun preparations for the Sandy Mountain Festival on July 13 and 14. Delicious homemade pies and cookies again will be served. The center is requesting donations of berries, apples and peaches to aid in the baking of over 200 pies for the weekend. Volunteers are also needed to help in the preparation and serving of the pies.

For more information contact the center at 668-5569.

The Sandy Senior Center is currently involved in the 1985-86 fiscal year membership drive. Persons 60 years of age or older and their spouses, who may be younger, are eligible for full membership. Men and women ages 55 to 59 are eligible for associate membership.

Full members are eligible for the many programs and services available at the Senior Center including outreach, transportation, telephone reassurance, law project, foot care clinic, blood pressure clinics, Loaves and Fishes lunches and Meals on Wheels. These services are also available to the spouses of full members.

A variety of recreational and leisure activities sponsored by the center, such as trips, arts and crafts, calligraphy, painting and other classes are open to anyone age 55 or older.

Membership dues for the year are $2 per person and $3 for a one-year subscription to the "Sandy Senior Scene," the monthly newsletter of the Sandy Senior Center.

For more information concerning opportunities and services for seniors call the Sandy Senior Center at 668-5569.

The Sizzler in Gresham will be the location of the monthly dine-out on Wednesday, June 26. Dinner orders will be taken from their menu. Diners vary from steaks, seafood, or a combination of both at a cost of $5 to $8. Included in the price is the entree, choice of potato, cheese bread and beverage. Gratuity will be additional.

A $1 deposit is required upon registration at the center in order to hold reservations.

School still has openings

The first week of vacation Bible school is just about over, but there is still room for more — more fun, prizes, crafts and Bible learning.

Classes are being held at the Sandy Seventh-day Adventist church from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. next week. Children ages 4 through 12 are invited to attend free of charge.

For more information call 668-6144.

5 residents graduate from UP

Five local residents received degrees from the University of Portland during spring commencement.

Local graduates included Lindsey D. Caudle of Welches, who received a bachelor of science degree in nursing.

Christine M. Clum of Sandy received a master's degree in education.

Karen G. Hedden of Boring received a bachelor of science degree in nursing.

Soun-Woo F. Kim of Rhododendron received a bachelor of business administration in marketing.

Kimberly G. Witt of Sandy received a bachelor of business administration in management and marketing.

The ceremony was held in the new Earle A. Chiles Center on campus, and University President Rev. Thomas C. Oddo conferred degrees on 92 master's and 382 bachelor's candidates.

Sno-park fees unchanged

Sno-park fees won't be raised for next winter's ski and snowmobile season.

The Winter Recreation Advisory Committee of the Oregon Transportation Commission recently decided that the current fees cover the costs to snow-plow parking lots near mountain recreation areas.

Sno-park fees for the 1985-86 winter season will remain $2 for a daily permit and $9 for an annual permit.

Registration underway at Sandy Preschool Co-op

The Sandy Community Preschool Cooperative is sponsoring a registration drive to fill classes for 3- and 4-year-olds.

As a cooperative, the school emphasizes parental involvement in all aspects of its function. A variety of experiences are provided for the children including music, arts and crafts, supervised play and field trips.

For more information call Carol LaBrie at 668-7180 or Dayna Rich at 668-7280.
