Jr. Miss program planned

The 1986 Sandy Junior Miss Scholarship participants are getting ready for their program in September.

They are already working on the physical fitness portion of the program under the direction of Chris Noga, owner/instructor of Gresham Jazzercise.

The girls are vying for scholarships to help them pay for a college education. According to Joan Miller, organizer, it is not too late for interested girls to get involved.

The program is being emceed this year by the Z-100 Morning Zoo, morning radio personalities.

The Sandy Junior Miss committee is at work raising money for scholarships. One way they are doing that is by sponsoring a food booth in the tent at the Sandy Area Chamber of Commerce's Wine Fair & Feast. They will be selling baked potatoes with topping.

Senior Center news

Members prepare for Festival

The Sandy Senior Center is humming with activity as members make final preparations for the annual Sandy Mountain Festival fund raising event. Homemade fruit pies, cookies and coffee will again be sold at the Senior Center booth during the Festival on Saturday, July 13 and Sunday, July 14.

The center relies on the help of volunteers to assist with the baking of fruit pies and cookies. Volunteers are also needed to work in the booth serving the baked goods. Booth assignments are made in two-hour shifts.

Persons not able to work in the booth or help with the baking may wish to contribute to the fund raising effort through donations of fruit for the pies, or a monetary gift to offset expenses.

Please contact the center at 668-5569 to help in any way.

Friday, July 19 the center has scheduled a trip to see the Champoeg Historical Pageant at Champoeg State Park. The pageant portrays historical events leading to the birth of Oregon. The family-type show begins with the Lewis and Clark expedition and fashions back to earlier Indian legends. It ends with the arrival of the great wagon train of 1843. Call the center for more information.

"Terms of Endearment" will be the featured movie of the month on Tuesday, July 16 at 12:30 p.m. The 1983 Academy Award winner stars Shirley McClain, Jack Nickelson and Debra Winger.

Bunco will be played on Thursday,

July 18 at 1 p.m. All are welcome to join in the fun. Prizes will be given to the lucky winners.

Among those helping to prepare homemade pies and cookies for the Mountain Festival booth are, from left to right: Ruth Baumbach, Marie Allen, Rosemary Cook, Eleanor Aubin and Vivian Gates. The Senior Center's booth is a fund raiser for Loaves and Fishes. Members will make 1,200 cookies and 225 fruit pies.

Dunk tank benefit set

All money raised at the dunk tank after 3 p.m. on Sunday, July 14 at the Sandy Lions Club's Beer Garden will be donated to Heidi Setterlund, a 13-year-old East County resident who has leukemia.

Money is being raised to help pay for a bone marrow transplant.

Town notables will be in the tank.

Church school scheduled

The Hoodland Lutheran Church will hold a non-denominational vacation Bible school Monday, July 22 through Friday, July 26 from 9 a.m. till noon each day.

The program for youngsters 3 years old through the fourth grade will be held indoors, while the program for fifth through eighth graders will be outdoors. There will be nursery care available for younger children.
