

Leslie and Tom Newberry

Story failed to mention director's volunteer hours

A story in the Oct. 16 Sandy Post, "Break-in won't slow volunteer staff," stated that Karen Kasserman, client services coordinator for the Hoodland Senior Center, works 30 hours a week.

That is the amount of time she is paid for, but she works longer hours, according to Tom Turpin of Welches.

"That 30 hours constitutes only a fraction of the time Karen Kasserman devotes to her work for this worthy project," Turpin said.

DeMain, Newberry say vows in double-ring ceremony

The Rev. Dennis Deardorff officiated at the July 26 marriage of Leslie DeMain and Tom Newberry. The bride's brother, David DeMain, escorted her down the aisle.

The 2 p.m., double-ring ceremony was at Trinity Community Church in Portland.

The bride is the daughter of Emma DeMain of Boring. She is a 1978 graduate of Sandy High School and is employed by Brod and McClung-PAACE Co. in Milwaukie.

The groom is the son of Lloyd and Eleanor Weisz of mid-Multnomah County. He is a 1971 graduate of Gresham High School and is employed as a fireman/paramedic by the city of Salem.

Susan Ricklefs of Tacoma, Wash., was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Annette Currier of Portland, Verna Ingersoll of Milwaukie, and the bride's sister-in-law, Donita DeMain of Milwaukie. Becky Barney of Gresham was flower girl and Jay Ricklefs of Tacoma, Wash., was ring bearer.

Pete Barney of Gresham was best man. Ushers were Frank Withrow of Milwaukie and Steve Jorgensen and Randy Veenker, both of Gresham.

Candlelighters were Steve Jorgensen and Randy Veenker. Soloist Annette Currier sang "What a Difference You Made in My Life" and "Flesh of My Flesh."

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the groom's parents. Marion Olanie served and Tami Kenney presented the guest book and attended the gifts.

The Newberry's plan to take a wedding trip at a later date. They are making their home on a 23-acre farm in Grand Ronde.
